Welcome to "Blocks" This privacy policy explains how we collect, use, and safeguard your information when you use our mobile game.

1. Information We Collect

We aim to collect minimal data and respect your privacy. Our game may collect the following information:

Personal Information: We do not collect personally identifiable information (e.g., name, email address) unless you provide it voluntarily, such as through feedback forms or support requests.

Device Information: We may collect information about your device, such as the model, operating system, and other technical information, to improve the game's compatibility and performance.

Usage Data: We may collect information about your interactions with the game, including gameplay activity, levels completed, and other metrics, to improve user experience and gameplay design.

Advertisements: Our game may use third-party ad providers, which may collect data to provide personalized advertising. This may include tracking identifiers for advertising, such as Google Advertising ID.

2. How We Use Your Information

The information we collect is used for the following purposes:

To improve game functionality, user experience, and performance

To provide support and respond to your inquiries

To show in-game advertisements (managed by third-party providers) based on your interests

3. Third-Party Services

Our game may use third-party services that collect, monitor, and analyze data, such as:

Ad Networks: We use third-party advertising services that may collect data for ad targeting and personalized ads. You can opt out of personalized ads through your device settings.

Analytics: We may use analytics services to understand game usage and improve our service. These services may collect anonymous usage statistics.

4. Security

We are committed to safeguarding your data. We employ appropriate security measures to protect your information from unauthorized access, alteration, or destruction.

5. Children's Privacy

Our game is not intended for children under the age of 13. We do not knowingly collect or solicit personal information from children. If you believe we may have collected information from a child under 13, please contact us to delete the data.

6. Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update this policy from time to time. Any changes will be posted here, and we encourage you to review this page periodically.
