

Rename this document with your name- include your answers in the post for this project.
Post the before research section first. After your research, answer the remaining questions in the same post. Add the pdf of your article reviews, and a link and or pdf of your final product.

Sustainability Project- Framing the essential question "How does sustainability impact health at bulldog city? After defining what problems sustainability solves, what are concrete ways that we can change our campus?

Before research:

What do you already know about this topic?

What interests you about this topic?

In 60 words summarize what you think is the underlying theme/question/problem/issue about sustainability.

What do you think are some solutions to the problem?

After researching your interests-

Generate 3 questions about the topic that when answered would illuminate the issue.

In 60 words answer one of your questions.

What do you think are some solutions to the problem?

How has your understanding of the topic changed from your research?

How does your product (presentation) contribute to our understanding of both the problem and the solutions?

Things you liked or might like to change about this project?