1 - The 4 questions from the winner's writing process:

- Who am I talking to? 20-40 years old man/women, lazy , unsatisfied with their situation, unmotivated, unproductive, employee with a low-paying job
- Where are they now? They know their desired dream state , in consequence, their dream and goals are to become multi-million dollar business owners and have a productive morning and also time and location freedom with their family, but they don't know how to get it
- What action/actions do I want them to take?
I want them to take this free gift with tips on how to get a better lifestyle and also the main purpose but in shadows, i want their contact information, to then from email direct them to actually the “real” funnel in order to monetize them
- What things do they need to experience to take the action I want them to take?
They need to experience curiosity for the gift and be so happy about the new free gift (pdf)that they are going to tell friends and family about it, but also trust so they have to think that this gift is trustworthy and it's not a scam or like other bad courses

2 My opinion on copy weaknesses

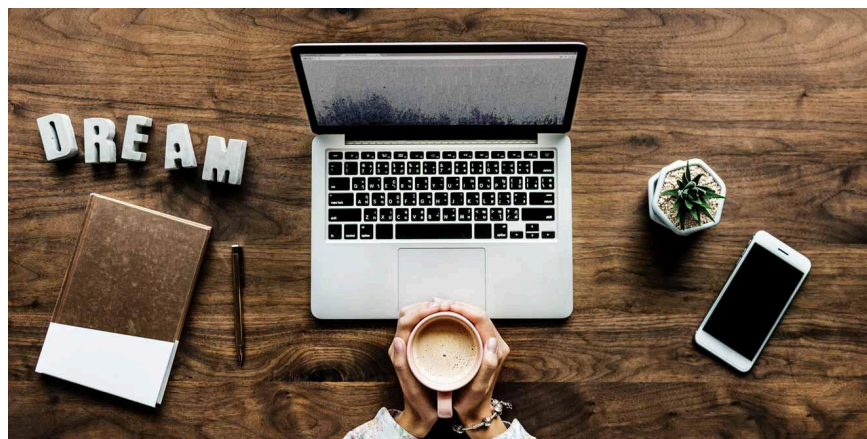

- I think that actually, I explain not a lot of positive facts that will persuade the reader to take action
- it's my first landing page
- for this kind of people, they have already experienced something not valuable for them and they also paid them a lot, so they are actually scared of not gaining value from the copy when they hope on this page I believe that not 100%of them will be sure that is trustworthy ...

3 The copy
