

Solaris, AKA Captain Guild

Solaris is the Captain of the 'Legion', a powerful ship that smited down fighter jets in combat, well known for its Antimatter railgun that took down the Automated 'Creationist' Reaper ship. (THIS IS ALL SPACE SHIT!! NOT SOT!!)

Though before he was a famed captain, he was a general in the WOS (War Operation Squadron). He was skilled in physical and ranged combat, taking down enemy tanks with artillery snipers.

His past was spent in a safe background above EX-2468, in an automated space residence. Though this residence had occasional trouble from fighter jets, they were always dealt with. Though on this ship, he was trained in combat, and later deployed to EX-2468.

Uhm uhjjjmh umhmuhmumhum hmumhumhm i don't know what else to add lmao have fun
