Foster Loper

Foster Loper, 82, a former Oshkosh resident, died at noon Saturday in Orlando, Fla., where he had been a resident for several years.

He was born in Oshkosh Oct. 1, 1896, and married Lillian Clark, who preceded him in death. He then married Lotus Mae Kemp.

Mr. Loper was formerly co-owner of Foster-Lothman Mills, Oshkosh. He was also co-owner of a business in Tampa, Fla.

Survivors include his widow; one daughter, Gale Loper, Oshkosh; four grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Services will be held Wednesday afternoon at the Garden of Memory Cemetery, Tampa, Fla.

Foster Loper, son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Loper, 73 Otter street, left this morning for the Great Lakes naval training station. Mr. Loper has enlisted in the aviation department of the navy as mechanic.
