

Michael Vick Is Selling His Home

Int. Michael Vick's Surry County, VA property. A realtor (Shelly) is showing the property to a young couple (Brenda and Dale).

Shelly

...and here we have the kitchen. Top of the line all the way, all stainless and marble. Personally, with my job, I never have time to cook, but it's a dream if you do- What is it you both do again?

Brenda

I'm a doctor.

Dale

And I'm a stay at home dad.

Shelly

Well, perfect then for dad. You'll love this, it's a great space for cooking for the kids, and has plenty of neat gadgets.

Dale

Totally, though, to be honest, I had my eye on the grilling space on the patio. Speaking of the patio, is that where most of the dogs were killed?

Shelly

Oh, right. Michael Vick, the previous owner, did kill at least one dog out there, and his associates in Bad Newz Kennels probably killed at least two more. But, between you and me? Michael Vick is a very motivated seller, and he told me that if it helps move the property I can let you know about several other dogs that he... (she makes a few dog murdering hand motions) ... out there. Not all of them pit bulls, even.

Brenda

Oh, it helps. It helps.

Shelly

Great. Don't overlook the fact that this is the sink where Michael Vick and Parcell Anthony Pierce would wash the blood from their hands after murdering dogs that refused to fight, or did not show enough fight, or were simply too small. Of course, Mr. Pierce killed the lion's share of those animals, but still, you're looking at a sink Michael Vick used after murdering a dog.

Dale

Ooo!

Shelly

And- and I really shouldn't be telling you this, but - this is the kitchen island where Michael Vick gave Sonya Elliott herpes, which she later won an undisclosed amount of money for.

Brenda

Wow, this kitchen is pretty central.

Shelly

You'd think that, but there are very few rooms in this mansion that Michael Vick hasn't murdered a dog within, or given someone an STD within, or taken steroids within, or hurt someone who loved him within.

Dale

Well, put a bow on it. We'll take it.

Shelly

You've made the right decision!

Michael Vick enters.

Shelly (cont)

Michael Vick! I sold your home!

Michael Vick (producing jumper cables)

Yeah, but you just didn't have enough heart.
