First

For the record, he changed my permission to spec only.

Stink got rekt. I changed it because I was first and I knew you were going to change it! Like you did!

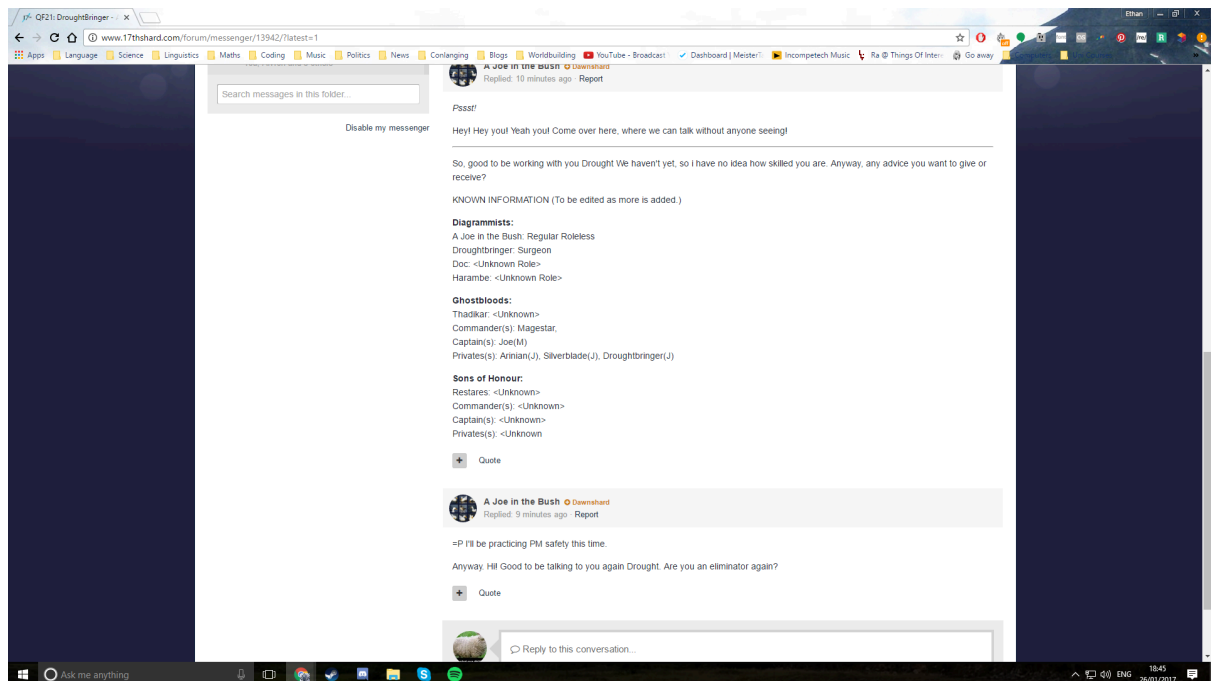

He says after changing my comment.

A bold accusation

Something true.

So none of the elims are actually looking in the elim doc.

Joe asked me to post this is as well:

PM safety is important guys.

I don't see anything in the picture
Unless you mean your email
But I knew that anyways
Because you made all the docs with your email

Yeah I'm fine with that

Hey, you're on the Resistance? Same

Ingress

The - YES

I just clicked through your email. Like, clicked in the top corner to pull up google plus Mhmm yeah. I haven't played in a while though.

Hi

Truly the most eloquent of all.

I think I found Sheep's youtube

Yeah.

Took you long enough :P

Can you stop changing my first please. Thank you.

Anyway, i am the last as well.

No.

Sheep, can you tell us about anything cool going on in game?

Not a lot apart from Joe's amusing interactions with the other elims he isn't aware of.

Aman is starting to try and get people to strategize with him, though I don't know what luck he'll have.

"Yes, because I'd tell you any day if I was, (and the fact that all my completed games I have been an elim so far) " Drought to Joe

Both are elims

IT'S TOO MUCH

Okay all elims are in the doc rn but Joe isn't revealing his name so he can continue to troll

Drought.

He's finally revealed himself. In troll form of course

Watching him troll both Drake and Drought was amazing..

And Storm you Sheep. My inbox is overflowing with PMs. :P

Heh, I'd be surprised if there wasn't loads of PMs.

I just can't wait to read them all.

Cycle 2

Oh my god. Aman has already figured out the entirety of the Cycle 1 PM circle perfectly.

Not surprising given how crafty he is.

I don't imagine it will be long before he figures out the current setup, given I think he's in contact at least indirectly with everyone who's had their PMs switched about.

Actually he probably knows already and just isn't telling anyone.

I was looking forward to this game -_-

I've been having fun snarking at players as Mi9

These PMs breaking is not good....

So basically, I can't see all my PMs, which meant that I couldn't inform Ecth that he'd died, which meant that he thought he was still in the game. Really sorry about that Ecth (for when you get on).

Anyone got any ideas on what to do about it? At the moment I can only really think of making a brand new PM when I need to talk to someone, but that sounds unwieldy.

Okay, it seems to show me the second page if I have all my PMs out of a folder.

"I personally doubt they have a Contacts, but it's not necessarily because it's OP, but more so because it renders their faction action moot. I would think that a GM would want to give the elims more strategic options, not les. That's why I wouldn't be surprised about a C, as there's more strategy involved and a chance factor... /shrug"

tfw Aman can literally read my mind

I have set two agents on your trail, you ninja.

I noticed and took precautions, don't you worry ;)

I have precautions for your precautions.

What does that even mean?!

Seonid put in an action to spy on a PM that Dani's breaking off for a cycle...

Cycle 3

And the double agents lose their first player. :(Should've been more active.

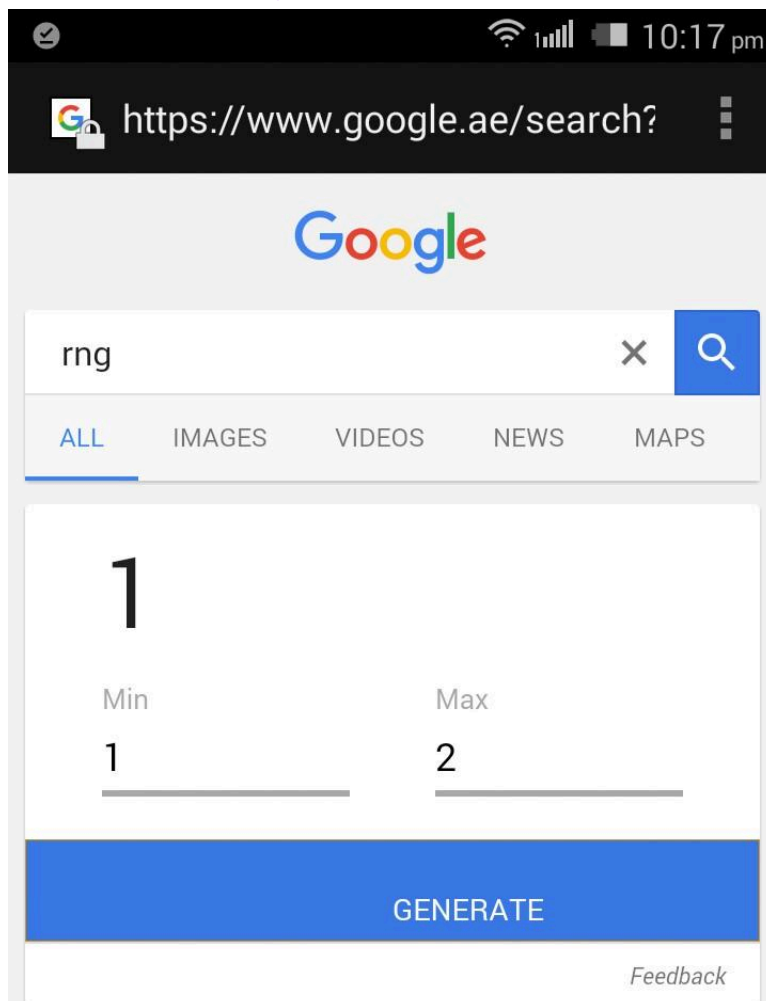

Cycle 4

Doc that message is just too much for me I can't take it

Hey Stick, welcome to the dead doc. So named for how little activity there is.
So Joe's an Elim, eh? Who else?
One of your killers :P well, apart from Drake

Btw Stick, who would you have chosen?

The sheep
#RNG
#MakingDecisionsEasy
You have no principles.
How many double agents are there? Alive
Two. Literally just Joe and Drake.
Stick, you might wanna crop that picture. Like now.
Whoops

GagdagfafiajfA

It's fine now

You're welcome

I wonder if we'll have more talking now.

I saw Ecth's post btw :P

Mmh? I don't think I saw that one. Is this the one after he died?

Yes, something about catching up with the thread :P

Yeah. PMs broke for me (I found a solution now) so I couldn't tell him in PM that he'd died >>

Is he ever going to join us

I did give him the link shrug

And who's missive was the jabberwocky one?

Mage. The Voynich one was also his.

Pretty font

I like the write-up!

Thank you

She was referring to my writeup

Hi everyone! Quite a few people have died.

Hey Conq!

Six players have died. Though only half of them ever entered this doc :P

Hey Conq, I don't know if you read the conflict RP, but if you did, who would you side with?

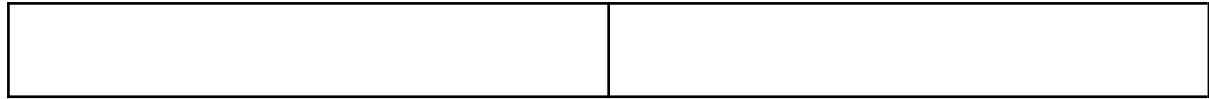

Have any living players chosen sides?

Conclusively, Mage has aimed a sniper rifle at Sheep, and though he has been smiling at Sheep, I'm certain he is still with me.

Assassin took a shot at me. I don't like him.

Despite your confidence, Sheep, Lopen seems to be siding with me. He's wary of you, in any case. Drake has also been shooting sheep, despite being a double agent, so i'm counting him on both sides. Joe is playing both sides, sneaky guy.

Sheep	Doc
Assassin	Daniyah
Stick	Lopen
Joe	Mage
Drake	Bard

Joe is a Double Agent.

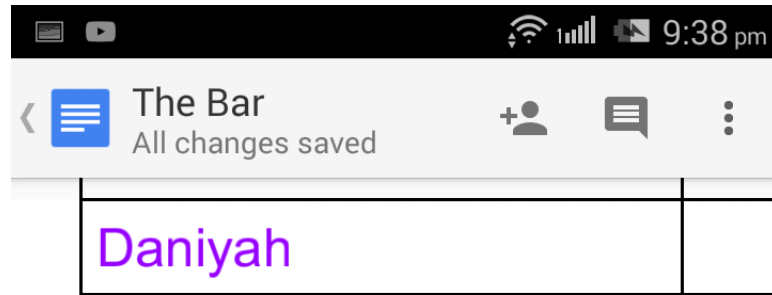

Why did sheep suddenly decide not to type whatever it was that he was typing :P

There. :D I completed it for him

? Suddenly what?

What?

I never typed anything. Haven't been on the doc since I asked Conq how he'd side. Huh.

Joe is a Double Agent.

And haha! I have Dani completely. So I have Dani firmly, and Doc has Mage firmly, and then Joe and Drake are both neither here nor there.

That leaves Stick, meaning I'm winning, even if Stick is dead.

Tbh, Joe and Drake are firmly yours, seeing as how they're your double

Who wrote this then

And haha! I have Dani completely. So I have Dani firmly, and Doc has Mage firmly, and then Joe and Drake are both neither here nor there. That leaves Stick, meaning I'm winning, even if Stick is dead.

Tbh, Joe and Drake are firmly yours, seeing as how they're your double agents. Sigh.
Hopefully Bard declares for me.

What about Aman, Seonid and Arinian? Have they chosen?

Seonid's forming his own faction to take both N and Mi9 down. Hah.

Cycle 5

Heya Lopen :1

Heya. And darn it, if I wasn't dead I'd definitely be gunning for Drake now. :P His vote on me was really suspicious. Glad to know I was right about Joe.

The village took a hit with your death. You were extremely well connected :P

If I wasn't, I'd probably still be alive. :P I was almost like, screw looking like a villager, I'm gonna contact as many players as possible to mess with everyone. :P

Does Drake get a new PM because I died? Regardless, looks like things are pretty even.

Hopefully people will listen to me about Joe now that I'm dead, but it's possible they'll go for Aman instead. >>

Drake is now connected to mage(lol, Joe already has a PM with Mage. Nice :D). On the bright side, your death only confirmed Dani's suspicions on Drake. She might be able to convince more people. True.

So, Lopen, thoughts on the GM shenanigans this game? :P (You were totally on my side, right? Not quite, no. I had anger at you for the messages being shoved down my throat, but fear for Sheep because, well, he's a ninja.)

Yes, but who would you have gone with? It's important to Sheep and I :P I've actually been secretly working for the American secret service this entire time. ;)

*gasp. How dare you. You and Seonid are horrible. :P

They were great. :P I had a lot of fun this game.

Hello Lopen o/

Hey Stick \o

Doc, some of your random text has turned from purple to black for some reason

Huh. weird. I'll go fix that. Thanks Stick.

This game was hilarious for Sheep and I. The whole feud basically started because I was trying to personalize each 'order confirmed' for each player, and getting annoyed when Sheep ninja'ed me with a 'noted' :P

I quite like the direction it's gone. I hope you guys did too :P For sure. XD

Definitely :P Who started it though?

I did :P First it was me getting annoyed at Sheep ninja-ing me, hence my warning about ninja sheep. Then Sheep seemed to take it as a challenge and tried to make it a point to ninja me. Then I asked Mage to kill him. Which led to a shouting match in Mage's PM, and declaring open war.

Then we hopped around Assassin and Arinian's PMs trying to recruit each to our cause. Then I decided not to chase him, but make the emergency transmission in thread. And it all spiralled from there :P

I got scared at the first sight of that post :P All the red and boldings and large font size Also, I've been making it a point to sneak at least one Hamilton/pop culture reference to my posts :P In cycle 3 I referenced Star wars and Batman. In cycle 4 there were a few lines from Hamilton in my post. In cycle 5, more Hamilton(You'll be back :P), plus a Captain America quote (the price of freedom is high :P(Well done)) :P Ah, I don't think I caught those. Nice. Yknow. It's a pity Mage didn't send in a missive this time. His past missives were fun :P Was he the one doing the random ones? Like the jabberwocky and that, what, elvish text? Yes, Mage did the Jabberwocky and the Voynich Manuscript :P As I said, pity he didn't send in a message :P. Yep, those were great. No idea what the Voynich one said, but yeah. :P (No one knows what the Voynich one says. It's supposed to be this untranslatable medieval text) Also, you liked my reactions to them, no? :P Definitely. The write-ups were great(and all the extra stuff, which I guess is sort of included in the write-up).

Another guy with a fun missive was Drake. Him declaring 'Marshall Law' got me :P Heh, right. I didn't get it the first time, but then I remembered his characters last name was Marshall and it kind of clicked.

Hey Stick, permission to post your PM here :P Those last few exchanges right before you died were hilarious :P sure Uh, btw, sorry about killing you Stick. >> it's fine :P I enjoy dying :D

#Toldyouso Stick, #ToldYouSo #Sigh
#lol

One of the most hilarious PM chains all game :P I think sheep and I also had a little fight in your PM, Lopen. You did indeed. Sadly, I didn't have the time to respond to it. :(But it was funny. :P #Screenshots In a way, it's great how some agents get some personalized fighting in their PM. On the other hand, those who rarely send in orders don't. Also it's hard for spectators to read them over I guess. I wonder if sheep and I should compile the PMs in a doc after the game. I recall someone doing that in some other game too

:O There's an anonymous Sheep in here right now! Run for your lives! Whew, they're gone...or are they? ninjaface

I think that was me :P

I moved those pics to after the end of doc thing to make them easier to find + less disruptive to the flow of messaging. And yeah, Mage's missives are great and I need to get on to him about the Piraha one.

Oh, and Lopen, did you like your death sequence?

Mhm. It was sad though. :(I'm sad I'm dead.

Sad.. but dramatic.

Bard is mine!!! And Lopen, I'm still counting you as mine.

Sheep still technically wins though, right? Since Drake and Joe are on his side :P

Oh my. Oh myyyyyy Dani, Dani, I'm so proud of you!!! She caught herself an eliminator all on her own :P

And Dani sided with me! Dani is making me very happy this cycle :D

:P

So who's getting lynched tonight?

Joe is. I think the game is over in favor of the village. After Joe is gone, there's only Drake, whom Dani has already built a full case against. If no new votes come in in the next hour, Joe dies, and the game will probably end tomorrow.

#YayVillage

Yay Sleep

Cycle 6

Sorry for not getting a death sequence up for you yet Joe but I seriously need to deal with some things. It'll be up for you later.

I feel so unloved. Hail to Doc!

Anyway. Game was fun, despite starting with only Eliminators to talk to.=P

I realised doing it any other way would lead to balancing issues. I intend to rewrite the rules to fix all the errors I found.

Yeah, i know that, which is why I'm =P'ing at it, rather than complaining about it. Starting off with 6 contacts would have been way too much.

All things considered, I thought it was balanced quite well. Drought dying to inactivity really hurt you guys a ton.

I was really excited to see what the DAs were gonna do with that "C", and then they died before taking any actions.

Of course, I was glad they died, but from either side, death by inactivity is very frustrating. I think the village has had 2? I thought activity was pretty good this game, except for those few instances, but I think those were due to players literally not being able to get on, so it wasn't that they were bored of the game or anything.

That was one of the downsides of the inactivity filter(especially in QFs), unfortunately. I think that was true for both Ecth and Drought. I don't really know how making the filter longer would help though, since the reason I added it would still be prevalent.

How goes the lynch?

What's up with the rollover

#WHEREISEVERYONE

Sheep and mi9 got kidnapped

Oops sorry I just read sheep's post about the rollover being postponed

Oh well

Yeee. Rollover at 9pm, currently working on Joe's death scene from last cycle >>

Right. Write-up is done. Time to work on rollover.

Cycle 7

I hope you liked that, Seonid. I also hope you don't mind how I wrote Niobe. I had a lot of fun doing it but I was worried about misrepresenting your character >>

It was quite the write-up. Funny story - Niobe was my first character, and the game I brought her in for was a Hunger Games themed free for all. I guess I should have expected being lynched. I told Bard everything. If I'd told Arinian, that might have derailed it. Bard never responded to me.

Ah cool. I'll admit that I'm behind on reading the PMs - I've just been tracking GM stuff.

Hmm. I tried to set up a good bard lynch for after my death, but no one seems to be following through on that.

Too bad, it's great when set ups work out. :D What did you do to set that up though?

I was hoping Mage would vote on Drake because you asked him to move your PM with Drake. But he didn't vote. :/

My latest post in the game is loaded with references :D

I couldn't find any this time D:

Really, Stick? Try again? :P I made them painfully obvious.

....wait. All of them are written in italics

I was looking for them in the RP.

Hehehehehe

Cycle 8

Looks like they did end up following through, Joe... :P

Yup. I was doing my darndest to prove bard's innocence to mage. And it looks like it worked to make Mage suspicious of him. But now, i don't think Drake can make any more contacts.

Oh, that's true. Who does he have PM's with, btw?

Aman, Mage, Dani and Assassin. Everyone except Arin.

o.o Umm, do people know whether Bard made any of those PM's? Hmm, so, Dani should shut down one of Drake's PM's, since she's super suspicious of him, so even if he makes a PM with Arin, he shouldn't win yet. Hopefully they just listen to Dani and lynch him...

Everyone's voting on Aman.... Drake is going to win

If he manages to get Dani to cut someone else's PM then he's definitely going to win.

Unfortunately for him, I don't think she's going to do that. Yep, she's already decided to cut one of his PMs.

It's kind of sad to see Drake get so close.

"If Aman is good, then I'll probably try and lynch Dani next cycle. "

OH

MY

HARMONY

>.< Sorry Aman, I feel like this is partially my fault.

I'm really surprised that Mage hasn't thought about Drake's connection to Joe though. I mean, he told me he was voting on Joe because Joe asked him to move his PM with Drake, or something like that.

!!! If Drake makes a PM with Arinian, but Dani cancels one of his, then everyone should know that the last DA is either Drake or Arinian, and with Dani's insistence of Drake's evilness, I'd hope that he'd be the one to bite the dust.

Hm. So, when Aman dies, who gets PM's because of that? I guess his 2 primary PM's, but how do you decide which 2 PM's are the primary ones?

I've been tracking and updating them separately. Both of Aman's Primaries already have contacts with each other and no one else has Aman as a primary. The Primary system was such a bad idea... so yeah, I really need to rewrite these rules.

And the game is done! See you all on the other side!
