Mustang

Description: Breed of wild horses of the North American old West. Originally imported to North America from Spain and became feral.

Characteristics: Medium profile with tapering muzzle. Neck is crested and set high, eyes are set further on the sides of their heads compared to other breeds

Color: Any however traditional coloring includes buckskin, dun and roan

Sources:
https://www.horsebreedspictures.com/mustang-horse.asp

http://www.identifyyourbreyer.com/identify/Stablemate/Rivet.htm

Photo: Sandysphotos2009, CC BY 2.0 <https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by/2.0>, via Wikimedia Commons