Option 2	Expanding Opportunity in a Transforming District	This presentation will address the strategies and systems employed by the School District of Lee County (SDLC), a large school district in Florida that is expanding access to rigorous curriculum while addressing barriers that may impede student pathways. Through a series of intentional efforts, the SDLC schools and district staff implemented a multi-year effort to expose all of its students to college-level coursework while providing consistent and meaningful support at multiple student intersections. With measurable successes now evident, the School District of Lee County is excited to share its journey with others.	 Matthew Kaye Director Accountability, Assessment, & Research School District of Lee County  Candace Allevato Director, Secondary Curriculum & Instructional Innovation School District of Lee County	Transformando
