

Materials and inspiration for Yo! sessions 😊

1. <https://www.thoughtco.com/esl-4133095> - articles about language, grammar, vocabulary, etc. Resources for both tutors and students
2. <https://www.usingenglish.com/quizzes/> - tests and exercises
3. <http://eslpartytown.com/teachers/nov/conv.html> - conversation questions on various topics
4. <https://eslfriend.com/> - various types of activities – conversation topics, business English lessons, grammar, etc.
5. <http://iteslj.org/questions/> - conversation questions
6. <https://breakingnewsenglish.com/> - news articles – various levels
7. <https://esldiscussions.com/> - conversation questions
8. <https://www.baamboozle.com/games> - cool games for young adults
9. <https://www.elllo.org/> - listening exercises with written scripts
10. <https://www.onestopenglish.com/> - various types of activities and lessons (news, tests, etc.)
11. <http://a4esl.org/> - quizzes (there is a section with Portuguese–English bilingual quizzes too)
12. <https://www.eslcafe.com/resources/grammar-lessons/> - in addition to grammar lessons, there are other types of resources, e.g., idioms, quizzes, phrasal verbs, slang, etc.
13. <https://www.businessenglishresources.com/learn-english-for-business/student-section/business-vocabulary/most-common-business-idioms/> - business English idioms
14. <https://en.islcollective.com/> - worksheets and other materials mostly suitable for young learners, but some could be used in lessons with adults as well
15. <https://www.ego4u.com/> - all sorts of content for English learners
16. <https://tefllessons.com/product-category/materials/free-materials/> - downloadable worksheets on various topics
17. <https://www.merriam-webster.com/> - not just a dictionary – there are games and quizzes too
18. <https://visuwords.com/> - visual dictionary, thesaurus and lexicon – interesting concept
19. <https://www.englishpage.com/> - grammar and vocabulary exercises
20. <https://www.newsinlevels.com/> - news articles for ESL learners (all levels)