

I got rich when I learned this...

Imagine this: A few years after starting a business now valued at $30 million, you take a walk and randomly meet some old friends. Despite them still being the same losers as before, you ask about their jobs, only to find out they dislike their 9–5 jobs and hate the majority of their day. Then one of them asks about your job; you proudly reveal the success of the business you started, leaving them visibly disheartened. Their souls were destroyed; you could see it in their eyes, especially when they noticed your Rolex watch. Those same people had laughed at you a couple of years prior when you started that business.

Now that is something we all want to experience. Getting revenge for them making fun of you for starting a business is one of the best feelings imaginable.

What is the difference between the people who make it and those who don't? Well, nowadays there are courses from millionaires everywhere, and the majority of people don't make it. But why? They don't listen to what the millionaires say. It's that simple; most people are just terrible listeners. However...

There is one tool of learning that is so easy that you don't even have to think about what you are doing. And if you follow it and work hard you will make it.

So the choice is yours: become the self-made millionaire or one of the imaginary loser friends. The choice is yours.

YES, I want to become RICH or NO, I'm too lazy.

CONTEXT: I'm writing this email for an imaginary rich client who wants to sell his course. I think that I missed some vivid injury and clarity but i don't know really thanks for reviving it it is very appreciated
