Program Change Description/Narrative

Briefly describe program change. For program discontinuance or suspension, include teach out plan.

This change is to remove confusion due to a new philosophy minor. While philosophy is still a possible component of the humanities minor, the renaming to "humanities" will clarify that students can focus on the study of humanities. The change also allows students who are interested in just philosophy avoid confusion about the different minors. In case the course admin program doesn't record the change, we are requesting that the "Humanities and Philosophy" minor be changed to just "Humanities".
