

Field: Aeronautical / Aerospace/ Engineering

Aero Inspection provides excellent technical service and support to airlines and leasing companies. They initially established a reputation for excellence in borescope and boreblend but is now known worldwide for a range of technical services such as Continuing Airworthiness Management, Aircraft lease transitions, Part 21J design, product supply, battery maintenance and aircraft weighing

Placement description (unpaid):

- One placement offered
- With the supervision of a mentor, the student will work on data analysis, and then work with engine test procedure

Skills required:

- Ideal for students interested in working in aeronautical engineering
- Important skills needed: research, presentation skills, passion for aerospace engineering

Format:

- Face to face at Aii - 10 Seletar Aerospace Heights, Seletar Aerospace Park, #03 - 06-12, Singapore 797546 from 09:00hrs to 17:00hrs.
- One hour for lunch. BYO Lunch