

Rules:

1. Sizing must be 1920x1080 or equivalent
2. Each participant may have only one part, unless you finish your original part and no backups are available, then you may take another.
3. I will be choosing parts/backups 3 DAYS after this MAP re-opens
4. Don't add your own watermark (I'll add it in the end). This also means no animation programs with their own watermarks such as Flip-A-Clip
5. For this MAP, frame by frame animation and lipsync is necessary! Meaning, no tweening unless it is puppet animation: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=DTqxft0DhNw>.
"I want this MAP to be just as lively and expressive as the song. Again, no static poses. Characters should be moving while singing! It's a musical AND a fantasy, so make it dramatic and flashy, especially towards the end. Here are some examples I'm thinking of for inspiration:"

"Upendi" from TLK2

"Be Our Guest" from Beauty and the Beast

"Dig a Little Deeper" from The Princess and the Frog

6. Stick to the script! If you have a small script change request, be sure to contact me first!
7. Send constant WIPs to prevent inconsistency/mistakes in sets/designs/script.
8. You must join the discord to help everyone communicate better! Lack of communication may result in a drop!
9. You need a way to send your part, whether it be google drive, sendspace, etc.
10. The deadline is 2 months from now as a basic due date. This will be extended based on progress from participants. After receiving your part, you will have 2 weeks to provide your first full storyboard WIP.
11. Collabs are allowed, please state the people you are collabing with in the application.
12. To know you've read the rules, state who you believe sunningrocks belong to and parts you would like in your preferred order. (Make sure to include if you are fine as a backup if all requested parts are taken!)
13. This MAP is not beginner friendly, but I am not too strict over who joins. Make sure you have FINISHED animation examples on your Youtube Channel.
14. Background references are not provided, please reference finished parts for color palettes.

Script:

Part 1

On the RiverClan side of the river, Graystripe and Silverstream snuggling and being all cutesy, when suddenly something crosses Silverstream's mind and she sighs and starts to walk away, closer to the river. Graystripe looks worried and confused and follows

Part 2

Silverstream: I'm tired of listening to the same sad story
How lovers fail because it's written in the stars

Silverstream sitting by the river, looking upset and a little annoyed with Graystripe at her side.

Part 3

Silverstream: The feuding family plot is starting to bore me
I'm thinking we can show them that's not who we are

Silverstream rolls her eyes, annoyed with the rules then turns to Graystripe, smiling and touches noses with him and brushes past him. Graystripe follows

Part 4

Silverstream: It may take a little more persuading
For those who think it's better that we are apart

Silverstream hops onto the stepping stones and turns back to Graystripe

Part 5

Silverstream: I have no doubt their doubts will soon be fading
We'll show them how true love finds a way

She crosses the rest of the stepping stones to the other side of the river. She jumps onto the Sunningrocks and turns back to Graystripe, looking happy and optimistic

Part 6

Silverstream: Even though I know what they'll say

Chorus of RiverClan cats: No, no that won't do
God has plans for you

Her smile fades and behind her a chorus of RiverClan cats appear, maybe the "lights fade" and there's a spotlight on them? Idk make it theatrical

Part 7:

Chorus of ThunderClan cats: If you live in sin
You let the devil win

RiverClan and ThunderClan chorus:
No, no that won't do

A chorus of ThunderClan cats suddenly appear behind Graystripe, startling him. Then switch to both of the choruses singing to each other across the river

Part 8:

Silverstream: But then they'll hear the words of truth that you've written from your heart

Graystripe: If love is a sickness
Then find me no cure

Silverstream goes to Graystripe's side and Graystripe starts to sing

Part 9:

Graystripe: For tis only love
That I know to be pure

Chorus: Awwwwwwwwwwwwww

Graystripe singing and both choruses appear behind them, "aww-ing"

Part 10:

Silverstream: Then they'll think about it

Chorus: Hmm...

Silverstream: And pray about it

Chorus: Yeah!

Silverstream: Then their hearts will open
Then they'll be singing a different tune

Switch between Silverstream singing and the cats' reactions here

Part 11:

Chorus: We see the light
You changed how we're thinking
Cause we were blind
You showed us the way

The cats start singing, still on separate sides of the river. Not super sure on what specifically to do here, so be creative. Just remember: theatrical!

Part 12:

Chorus: We're wrong
You're right
Salvation is yours if you do what is true to you

Again, not super sure on specifics. Maybe have the cats pointing to Graystripe and Silverstream?

Part 13:

Chorus: And you do it with love
Do it with love

Some sort of choreography, be creative. There shouldn't be any distinguishment between who is in which clan. Also, have Graystripe and Silverstream running happily among the singing cats, at least towards the end. Remember, energetic and colorful!!

Part 14:

Chorus: Yeah, oh

Graystripe: Your father!

Silverstream: Yeah
He's a hard man to be moved
And he'll say

Crookedstar: This is unacceptable
I do not approve!

Graystripe running happily then skidding to a stop as he runs into Crookedstar. Crookedstar looms over them (maybe casting a shadow) and Graystripe looks scared. Silverstream comes up beside him, looking unconcerned. Crookedstar starts singing

Part 15 (mine!):

Silverstream: But I know you'll win him over
His heart is gonna sing
And he'll love you
When you do your thing

Go on, do it right now, do it!

Silverstream winds around Graystripe to calm him down and pulls her father and him in a hug with her and then encourages Graystripe to "do his thing"

Part 16:

Graystripe: If love is love purely
Then let me opine
That all love is surely divine

Chorus: Go on, do it
Go on, do it right now
YEAH!

Crookedstar: Good God, y'all!

This needs to have a lot of build. I see it with the camera circling Graystripe and the cats gathered around him. But I know how hard that is to animate, so as long as you have that same sort of spirit, it's up to you!

Part 17:

Crookedstar (and Chorus): I see the light
You changed how I'm thinking
Cause I was blind
And you've shown me the way

Crookedstar singing to Silverstream and Graystripe. Just make sure he's super into it and convinced. Remember, this is their fantasy.

Part 18:

Crookedstar: I'm wrong
(He's wrong!)
You're right
(You're right!)

Crookedstar and Chorus: Salvation is yours if you do what is true to you

Crookedstar singing with the chorus popping up in the background. The last line needs to start building to the excitement.

Part 19:

Chorus: And you do it with love
Do it with love

Again, more singing and dancing, with all the cats moving along the river, towards Sunningrocks

Part 20:

Crookedstar: Ohhhh Brethren
I say unto you

Chorus: Say what!

Crookedstar: I say who are we to judge these two

Chorus: So true, preach it!

Crookedstar leaps onto the Sunningrocks with Bluestar. At the chorus' lines cut to them, and make sure you really get the emotion and sass in their animation :D

Part 21:

Crookedstar: He's a writer doing what he can (What he can)
She's a daughter of a preacher man (Woo!)
And they got the right to

Crookedstar + Chorus: They got the right
They got the right to be together

Show Graystripe at his part and Silverstream at hers, with their clans behind them reacting, and at the last line show them in the frame together with everyone looking and smiling at them

Part 22:

Crookedstar: I need no further proof
These words, they speak the truth

Chorus: The truth will set you free!

Crookedstar on the Sunningrocks, singing

Part 23:

Crookedstar: Set you free

Crookedstar + Chorus: When you do what is true to you
And you do it with

Crookedstar: Do what's true to you!

Show all the cats singing together with Crookedstar above them, his voice sounding out above the others

Part 24:

Fireheart: Wait!

Graystripe: Read

Fireheart: Awwww

Graystripe and Silverstream: Yay!

Fireheart pushes to the front of the crowd, looking angry. Graystripe and Silverstream press against each other like "But look at us, we're cute!" Fireheart softens and smiles and Graystripe and Silverstream are happy.

Part 25:

All: Love

Do it with love

From here on is the climax, so it really needs to be celebratory and exciting. Really, think of it as a big musical number. Don't go past the bounds of reality, but make it dramatic and theatrical. Lots of colors and movement! Look at the examples on the rules for inspiration! Be creative!

Part 26:

All: Yeah

We see the light

You changed how we're thinking

Cause we were blind

You showed us the way

Graystripe and Silverstream floating down the river on a heart shaped raft of reeds with everyone singing and dancing around them on the banks.

Part 27:

All: We're wrong

You're right

Salvation is yours if you do what is true to you

And you do it with

Same as previous

Part 28:

All: Love

Do it with love

Mistyfoot: Yeah believe in the power of love!

Up to you what Graystripe and Silverstream are doing, but you must have Mistyfoot coming up to stand on a rock on the shore, singing.

Part 29:

All: Do it with love

Mistyfoot: Woo!

Fireheart: I believe, I believe, I believe!

Fireheart steps up on the other side of the river and sings

Part 30:

All: Do it with love

We see the light!

Everyone's still dancing and singing, as is Mistyfoot and Fireheart. This needs to be super colorful and happy. On the last beat, it needs to snap back to reality with Silverstream and Graystripe facing each other on the stepping stones.
