

Resource List

Second Harvest Heartland

Mission Statement

We focus on strong results, innovation and thought leadership to accomplish the following:

1. Create a sustainable support system that provides access to food.
2. Find new, more efficient and more effective, ways to do more with the food resources in our community.
3. Tap into new sources of donated food; including fresh, nutritious produce from an ever-expanding network of growers, food manufacturers and processors.
4. Work to give more people greater access to food as well as improve support for the people we're currently serving.

Resource Services

- Child Hunger Initiative: SNAP outreach
- Hunger & Health Initiative: FOODRx is a Second Harvest Heartland initiative which aims to create new ways for food insecure patients to access food within the health care system.
- Minnesota Central Kitchen
- Food Bank: brings together restaurants, caterers, and hunger-fighting organizations to tackle hunger
- Food Rescue: area institutions a medium to donate large-scale food items to Minnesota Central Kitchen.
- Midwest Produce Co-op: Increasing the quality, quantity, and variety of produce, reducing the cost of bulk and cased produce, improving efficiency and planning for participating members
- Farm to Food Shelf: works with local farmers and growers to collect and distribute excess locally-grown, fresh produce
