

LEARNERS CODE OF CONDUCT

1.1 Introduction to the learner Code of Conduct

The learner Code of Conduct provides you with guidelines to perform well in the Wavumbuzi Entrepreneurship Challenge. In this code of conduct, you will find outlined expectations from the School, Teachers and Wavumbuzi on how you are expected to conduct yourself during and after the Challenge. Learners, as you participate in the Challenge, we appeal to you to always exercise the highest level of integrity. Hence, this code of conduct also outlines the behaviors that will lead to your automatic disqualification from the Challenge. This is to promote integrity and fairness to all participating learners.

1.2 About Wavumbuzi Entrepreneurship Challenge

The Wavumbuzi Entrepreneurship Challenge is a free annual 6-weeks online Challenge offered to learners in all secondary/high schools across Kenya. It is a gamified, fun, experiential learning process designed to develop your entrepreneurial thinking, competencies and aspirations. Learners, you will not be taught. Instead, you will get sets of Challenges - clustered in Quests which are by sub-industry/ sectors - which you will access via computers or mobile phones. Each task requires you to apply new concepts and utilize your knowledge and skills in solving real-world problems therefore developing your problem-solving and value creating abilities!

1.3 What the School expects from you

- Discipline, high integrity and honesty.
- Responsible use of the computers and the phones assigned to you by the school.
- Responsible use of time assigned for the Challenge.
- Responsible use of the internet content when tackling the Challenges.

1.4 What the Teacher expects from you

- Honesty and integrity during the challenge.
- Time keeping and good time management during the Challenge period.
- Responsible internet use when engaging in the Challenge.

- Responsible behavior and proactive reporting to the teacher if any learner is not following any of the set rules.

1.5 What Wavumbuzi expects from you

- Demonstrate and exercise honesty and integrity at all times.
- Register, actively participate and complete the Challenges within each Quest presented on the Wavumbuzi platform; aiming to complete the Introductory Quest and at least one sub-industry Quest.
- Use your official and recognisable name when registering for the Challenge or creating your profile. This name will appear in your certificates and, if applicable, in your award announcements.
- Conduct up to five daily peer reviews available to you, complete the baseline, weekly and endline surveys to earn more points.
- Produce original work in each and every Challenge and do not plagiarize (take the work or an idea of someone and present it as your own including direct copy from Chat GPT and related AI bots).
- Responsibly use of school's technology devices (laptop, cell phone or tablet) throughout the Challenge.

1.6 Behaviors that will lead to your immediate disqualification from the Challenge, account suspension and ineligibility for award(s) in the Challenge

- Cheating or Plagiarism: Engaging in or helping other learners to cheat during the Challenge, such as sharing of answers, directly copying answers from the internet including Chat GPT and related AI bots then presenting them as your own.
- Creating Duplicate Accounts: Knowingly creating multiple or duplicate accounts to gain unfair advantages by concurrently using the different accounts to participate in the Challenge or manipulate the system.
- Security Breach: Trying to hack into the Wavumbuzi platform, change data, or access other learners' accounts without permission.
- Indiscipline behaviors, including but not limited to, being disrespectful and using abusive language
- Irresponsible use of the internet content during the Challenge and browsing through unauthorized online sites such as those prohibited by the School including pornographic sites.
- Any act or omission that, in the opinion of the Wavumbuzi team, will damage the reputation of the Wavumbuzi or Allan & Gill Gray Philanthropy Rwanda, Kenya.

Non-adherence to the code will lead to immediate disqualification whereby:

- FIRST time offender: Wavumbuzi will deactivate your account for two (2) weeks and exclude you from obtaining any award(s).

b) REPEAT offender: Wavumbuzi will immediately freeze your learner account, and it will remain frozen for 24 months. Hence, you will not be able to take part in the remaining part of the Challenge, and in the next Wavumbuzi Entrepreneurship Challenge.

Further, Wavumbuzi will inform the Teacher Champion and Principal of your School.

Note: The School Liaison and Ambassador will first explore all options including notifying the Teacher Champion before freezing of the account.

I _____ hereby confirm that I have read, understood and agreed to comply with the policy requirements here-in as part of the Wavumbuzi Entrepreneurship Challenge Guidelines.
