

Spanish and the Hispanic World.

Activity 3

- A. Can you name places within our states where people speak Spanish?
There are actually millions of Spanish-speaking people who live in the United States. Write the names on a piece of paper.
- B. On a sheet of paper, fill in the blanks to complete the words.
- American states that were once part of the Spanish Empire, and later of Mexico.
C _ _ _ f _ _ _ _ a T _ _ a _
Co _ _ r _ d _ New M _ _ _ c _
Ar _ _ _ _ a
 - The southern part of this state became home for thousands of Cubans after Cuba became a Communist country in 1958–60. There are now many Cuban Americans there.
F _ _ r _ d _
 - Cities in the United States with large Hispanic populations:
New _ _ _ _ _ C _ i _ ag _
W _ sh _ _ g _ o _ , D. _ L _ _ A _ _ e _ _ s
S _ _ A _ to _ io

*When the Spanish conquerors arrived in Mexico and Central America in the sixteenth century, they found advanced civilizations. Investigate the Aztecs and Mayas and the languages they spoke.

- C. Write definitions of borrowed Spanish words and use them in sentences.