

Special Education Teacher Long-Term Sub AY26 (anticipated end date end of December)

Community Charter School of Cambridge (CCSC) is a public charter school that serves students in grades 6-12. Focusing on post-secondary success for all students, CCSC combines high academic and behavioral expectations with an environment of unconditional affection, acceptance, and belonging in which all students can grow and achieve. CCSC seeks dedicated, outstanding, and innovative faculty who are interested in:

- Joining our exceptionally diverse and talented team
- Contributing to our rigorous academic program and strong school culture;
- Supporting the school's commitment to anti-racism, equity and restorative justice, which is reflected in our daily practices, policies, and systems; and
- Learning through professional development that is team-based and includes an extensive focus on race and equity.

CCSC is consistently one of the highest ranking middle/high schools in the greater Boston area. Please visit www.ccscambridge.org to learn more about our work.

This specific position entails supporting special education students in an inclusive setting; and preparing students for success in college and the requisite standard exams - MCAS, SAT, and AP. The precise assignment for this position has yet to be determined and will depend on the qualifications and background of the person to be hired as well as the staffing needs of the school. In addition, the faculty member will serve as an advisor and fulfill all regular duties and commitments required of CCSC staff.

A CCSC Special Education Teacher can expect to:

- Facilitate IEP Team Meetings
- Write comprehensive, compliant, and relevant IEPs
- Work collaboratively with general education teachers to provide inclusion services across grade-level content areas in order to meet the needs of students with a wide range of academic, social, and behavior skills and abilities
- Meet with Grade Level teams to ensure appropriate implementation of accommodations and modifications in general education classrooms
- Regularly gather and analyze data that informs progress on IEP goals
- Conduct academic testing for initial and reevaluations and write academic reports
- Work with school psychologist to interpret evaluations
- Collaborate with ancillary providers, including speech language and occupational therapists
- Work with a diverse student body from Cambridge, Boston, and surrounding cities
- Promote a school-wide culture of respect using the principles of restorative justice
- Communicate with students' families on a regular basis
- Participate in myriad forms of professional development as scheduled for all faculty

Qualifications:

- Special Education Mild/Moderate Disabilities license; 5-12 preferred
- Teaching experience in a similar setting preferred
- Ability to support or co-teach more than one subject preferred

Salary

This position has a daily compensation rate ranging from $150-$250 dependent upon experience and qualifications

How to Apply

Send a cover letter and resume to Courtney Burns, Director of Student Support, at sjobs@ccscambridge.org with the subject line "Special Education Teacher".