

GRAMMAR – Using Let's Instead of Should Rewrite the Sentence

A suggestion using should is less forceful and assertive than a statement using let's. Look at the suggestions with should below. Rewrite the statements using let's.

1. We should go to class early today. → _____.
2. We should visit Uzeyir's house. → _____.
3. We should get Colombian food for dinner. → _____.
4. We should change clothes before we go out. → _____.
5. We should walk to the store instead of driving. → _____.
6. We should throw Linda a surprise party for her birthday! →
_____.
7. We should go to sleep soon. → _____.
8. We should clean this place up. → _____.
9. We should wash our hands. → _____.
10. We should finish early. → _____.
11. We should put gas in the car. → _____.
12. We should take the train to Boston. → _____.
13. We should call the ambulance. → _____.
14. We should copy the whiteboard. → _____.
15. We should break up. → _____.