Dear Ann,

Thanks for your letter. It was great to hear from you.

I'm sorry you don't get on well with your parents. As for me, I have practically no problems with mine, although we quarrel sometimes because I spend too much time playing computer games. In this case I try to talk to them and find the way out. Unfortunately, I can meet my friends only at weekends and we usually play football together. It's our favourite game.

And how do you get on with your sister? Do you play together? Do you help her with her homework? I wish I had a sister or a brother.

Anyway, keep smiling whatever happens!

Write back soon.

Lots of love,

Kate
