

EBSCO DATABASE LIST

EBSCO is a database service that contains multiple databases. By default, all databases are searched but one strategy of efficient researchers is to narrow a search results list to the database that best serves their information needs. To assist with this, a descriptive list of EBSCO databases is provided below.

Recommended database for:

- Starting high school research: MasterFILE Premier
- History topics: History Reference Center
- Science topics: Science Reference Center

| | |
|--|--|
| Academic Search Premier | This multidisciplinary database provides full text for more than 3,100 scholarly journals, including peer-reviewed articles. More info (click on title list links for journals and subjects) |
| ERIC | ERIC, the Education Resource Information Center, provides access to education literature and research dating back to 1966. More info (click on the title list link for coverage) |
| Funk & Wagnalls New World Encyclopedia | General encyclopedia |
| GreenFILE | Covers all aspects of human impact to the environment including topics like global warming, sustainable agriculture and renewable energy. More info (click on the title list link for coverage) |
| Health Source - Consumer Edition | Collection of consumer health information including full-text articles |

EBSCO DATABASE LIST

| | |
|--|---|
| | from consumer health magazines as well as access to pamphlets and a medical dictionary. More info (click on the title list links for coverage and subject) |
| History Reference Center HIGHLY RECOMMENDED | Contains full-text articles from journals and magazines and reference books on topics in U.S. and world history from the earliest civilizations through the present day as well as thousands of primary source documents. More info (click on the title list links for coverage and subject) |
| History Reference eBook Collection | Reference ebooks |
| MAS Ultra - School Edition | Designed specifically for high school libraries, this database contains full text for nearly 500 popular, high school magazines as well as reference books for a variety of subjects. |
| MAS Reference eBook Collection | Reference ebooks |
| MasterFILE Reference eBook Collection | Reference ebooks |
| MasterFILE Premier | Designed specifically for public libraries, contains full text for general reference magazines and publications covering a wide range of subject areas including business, health, education, general science and multicultural issues. It also includes an extensive image collection of more than 2 million photos, maps and flags. |
| Newspaper Source | Provides cover-to-cover full text for more than 40 U.S. & international |

EBSCO DATABASE LIST

| | |
|------------------------------------|---|
| | newspapers. The database also contains selective full text for hundreds of regional (U.S.) newspapers. In addition, full text television & radio news transcripts are also provided. More info (click on the title list link for coverage) |
| Science Reference Center | Topics include biology, chemistry, earth and space science, environmental science, health and medicine, life science, mathematics, physics, science and society, science as inquiry, scientists, technology and wildlife. More info (click on title list links for coverage and subjects) |
| Science Reference eBook Collection | Reference ebooks |
| Topic Overviews 6-12 | Summary articles that may appear at the top of a search results list. These encyclopedia articles are a great source of background information and a starting point for student research. |
| TOPICsearch | Sources for exploring popular classroom discussion topics including current events, social, political and economic issues, scientific discoveries. These sources include articles from periodicals including international newspapers, biographies, public opinion polls, book reviews, pamphlets, and government information. |