Who is Comet?

Comet is a user who is currently most active in the ANTONBLAST and Crash Bandicoot communities. They post both fan art and original art onto their accounts on several platforms including Bsky, Instagram, and Tumblr. This person really does not deserve the platform they have, considering everything they did to me and others, I will explain and show the various things Comet did in this document. (🐾)

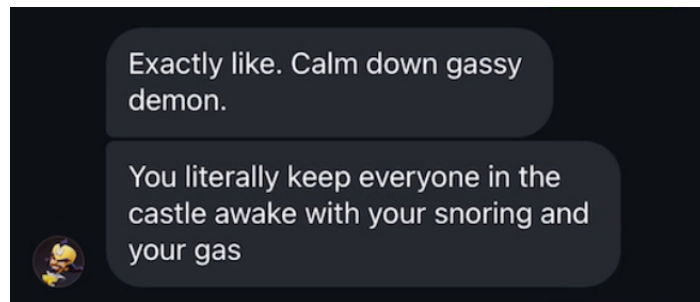

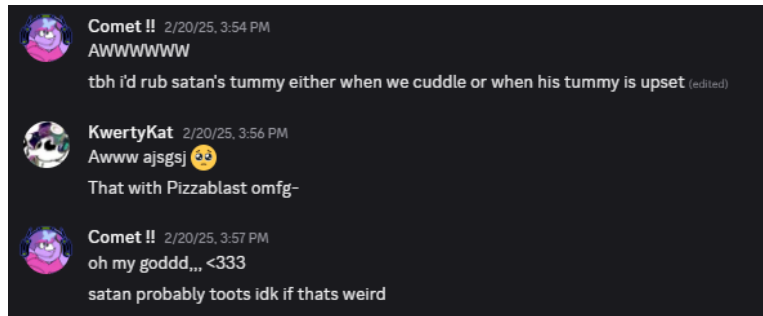

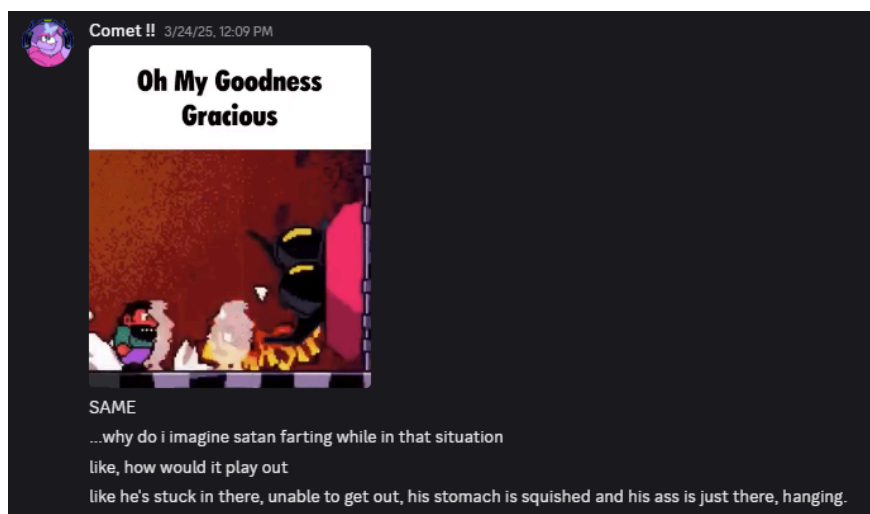

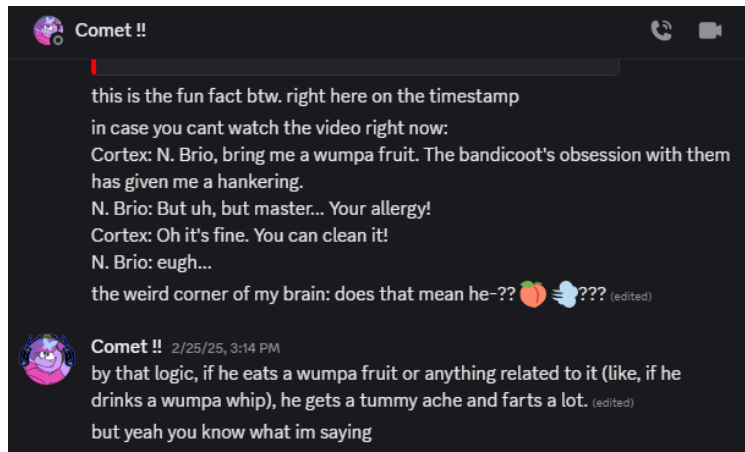

(Comet's bsky account)

Initial Interactions and the Descent into Depravity

About a month ago or so (as of making this document), Comet and I became friends after we both met on a server based on one of our current favorite games, as we shared common interests which were ANTONBLAST and Crash Bandicoot. We eventually moved to DMs and began talking. The conversations that we had were tame and nice at first, we talked about our interests and shared various ideas and thoughts we had for our favorite characters and franchises.

Eventually, Comet began to drift towards questionable territory, with them talking about their favorite characters farting and or sleeping/snoring. I didn't question anything at first and made sure to keep an open mind, since I didn't want to seem rude or as a kinkshamer as I personally don't find that sort of content appealing. (🐾🐾)

Fetish Mining

As time passed, Comet talking about these certain fascinations happened almost every single day. They began to talk about the characters they liked farting and or sleeping/snoring in great detail and frequency, sent me drawings they made of their favorite characters in outright fetishistic scenarios, and wrote very long, extremely detailed fanfiction of the characters they like in certain situations relating to their fetishes.

Comet also frequently asked me to answer their questions of what a character would say or do in these kinds of situations. They just overall tried to force these fetishes of theirs onto me. (🐾) also imagining satan thinking someone else is a teddy bear in his sleep and he snuggles them the possible contenders:

anton - bro tried to sneak in to get something back but he got caught in the embrace instead, the snoring is worse.
pizzahead - went back to the bedroom after getting a snack and satan got him and so they cuddle or... me - too small. a 5'3, hes using me as his teddy while im not one. but i rly appreciate it. and his snoring tickles the back of my neck (edited)

comic: satan is not updating lol
The First Show
After going through many deaths throughout the game when he was a playable character, cortex decides to get his revenge on the player.
Boss: the comic version of satan happens.
"THAT DOES IT!" (cortex jumps up to him, chat i think my crash 4 copy is corrupted!) have been frozen ever since, turned into a dead, disrespected, disrespected, disrespected.
And i've died countless times... AND YOU EXPECT ME TO HELP FOLLOWING YOUR LEAD? Well, guess what, you're fucked! I'm not going to be your silly little puppet any longer. And since you've put me in this position, i'll have to do it about time (punish you by KILLING YOUR SAKI FILE!).
Cortex points the gun right at the screen, ready to fire, unfortunately the gun seems to be out of ammo.
"Oh dear! What a predicament. Looks like i won't be able to win your save file after all."
...
he throws away his blaster.
"But i do know another way to punish you."
He suddenly grabs the screen and smashes his face into it.
"HMM How does it feel to be controlled now? By the way, don't mind the sweat and the smell... Actually, mind that. Besides, all of that level running made me work up such a sweat!"
he groans away his blaster.

Comet !! 3/25/25, 10:00 AM
"Oh, and by the way i'm not moving anyone's save. Well, perhaps until i'm ready to go again. How long will it take, you ask? Hmm... Actually, i've got no idea, BUT i'm going to make sure you stay as my main character for a LONG while. Oh, and just so you know, i've temporarily deactivated all of your character's buttons, from your controller to the game itself. Well, Except since i've added more battery life and i've decided to do it, so there's a bright side for you, but that still won't stop me from having you as my main character."
he groans away his blaster.

Comet !! 3/25/25, 10:00 AM
"Oh, how i wish i could see you that pretty comfortable! seriously, who knew your screen was so soft despite being so fat?"
unintentionally for him, the touch screen was not deactivated, the player then proceeds to poke his butt.
"Huh?"
he turns around, the player still touches his soft cheek.
"HEY! Knock it off! Can't you see i'm trying to relax?"
"Although, a message won't be as bad... i could be another part of your punishment..."
"Oh, Cortex, you're a GENIUS. As always... Well, while you're standing as my main character, i'll be rubbing my punishment just to turn around."
"Hehehehe!" There are so many tick people playing this game... Mostly it's for "Satan, or Disrespect, or Crash" it's not up, COCO is a character that all people love and i've... They were had this kind of treatment before, it feels so... Fresh."
he plays then start using the touch screen to massage his ass, starting from the left cheek.
"Ahhh... How relaxing... This is much better than breaking crates and running around... Oh, go a little lower there."
The player then moves their finger to the left.
"A little down..."
he leans then goes down and starts massaging there.
"Ahhh... that's just... Oh, could you go for the whole cheek instead?"
he fingers then proceed to massage his entire left cheek.
"Ahhh... How relaxing..."
he fingers then go for the right one.

"Eep! That's not Moore, mooreee!"
two thumbs then start massaging and massaging his two cheeks together. Cortex shows a look of relaxation and a blushing, quite a bit.
"Ahhh... You know, i could make this easier for you to feel how soft it is, but then again, this is a family game... If only i knew how to change the game's blushed rating."
there's more where that came from!

Comet !! 3/25/25, 10:00 AM
"Hey! Wait a minute, if i was able to disable your controls and manipulate the game's camera system... Does that mean? Oh Cortex, you said why haven't you thought about this before? Peon! i reactivated your home button, Send me to the E-shop quickly!"
the player presses the button and sends the player to the home page.
"Oh, don't worry about me, i've momentarily locked the game after all, i should be able to come with you! Now press that e-shop icon, and we'll be on our way."
the user presses the e-shop icon and then their own icon, transporting them to the loading screen. cortex falls sharply since he was sitting on the crash 4 square icon.
"Such a nice way to find, i'd say."
"Ahh there we are. The sweet, tangy smell of the e-shop. Although i'm not familiar much with it since i'm not a Nintendo character... But why stand around and gloat while there's work to be done? Search up the game!"
the player searches up crash 4 and gets to its page, cortex notices the rating!
"Well, what do you know about that?"
"And you get it digitally too well, that's understandable, physical copies of the game for this system haven't been on sale since what, 4 years ago? Now, watch as i put my brilliant genius to work... What? i've been breaking the fourth wall since Twinsanity! You think i don't have the power to do this? Sheesh! i'll be taking no more questions from you, let me handle this."
Cortex then approaches the sign and pulls out his blaster. He aims and sticks out his tongue as he sets up a rating on it. He then pulls out an evil, mischievous smile as he fires his weapon into it, changing the setting into several different ones until getting to the page: 18+.
"There we go, much better, wouldn't you say? Well, with that out of the way, let's get back to what we were doing, hmm?"
the player picks the e-shop and goes back to the home screen.

Comet !! 3/25/25, 10:00 AM
"Oh, my, we almost forgot! Don't mind the changes i've made into the game. Oh, and don't question how i did it. People who use the internet would compare me to that white-browed brunette anime girl if i said you'd be waiting inside."
Cortex lets out a victorious laugh as he enters the game icon. the player then comes back in the game. The game opened up as usual, normal signs showed that the toys for both legs crash was taken off stage by a stage hand and that crash running was replaced with Neo's. It then shows as a loading screen. As a result, the legs and music were changed as well, the title is now "Neo Cortex 4: it's about time" and the music is the boss music from 4th time's charm. suddenly the player hears a voice, and it's none other than cortex himself!
"What, you think this is overkill? Pish, please, who at toys for both said modding their game would hurt their feelings? Now press that start button, it'll take you back to where we were before, on, and as for extra notes... All that happened before wasn't real!"
with the start button pressed the loading screen is back at it again, as the loading ends you're back to the level you and cortex were.

"Oh good, you're here! Good to see you again, peon. Now, where was I? Why, of course! Cortex then grabs the screen again and smashes his face into it again, he then sits on the ground.
"Oh, right, i did say i'd make things easier for you to massage my bottom! Well... Here's a little warning, the rest away from all of the level running i went through, so it's just a little more high, it's not that bad, really. At least i'm not as sweaty and awkward as those rotten bandicoots or... Dispicable... Yuck. But no matter that now... i need to relax, still..."
he groans away his blaster.

Comet !! 3/25/25, 10:00 AM
Cortex then gets up a little and takes off his pants, revealing his swatery, very much smaller butt. he's wearing pink pants with a strawberry pattern. After pulling down his pants completely and prop on his stomach where his legs offer him as extra support to keep himself up, he hits the screen with his butt.
"Oopie Popoopo!" It appears i hit it a bit too hard, apologies."
he then looks at his butt and then back at the player, smugly.
"Ugh, i know this seems a bit surprising, but yes, i do wear cute "prty" panties, what did you think? The reason why they were white when you electrocuted me was because the game didn't put much more extras on me because of how rushed i was near the end. Don't you want tell anyone about it, this is a secret between you and me! Kesh-kesh, keep rubbing. This position should help you out much more than me sitting directly on you. My stomach said back also need some relief, you know?"
the player then uses the touch screen again to rub both of his butt cheeks. Cortex has a satisfied expression on his face, showing his tongue out. He moans and also groans.
"mooreee"
the fingers then proceed to do it more, ending up squeezing both his buttocks at the same time, leaving him blushing his face, smiling with hearts in his eyes and giggling.
"mooreee"
the rubbing continues and so the squeezing, cortex sighs in relief.
"Ahhh... This is such a perfect, you know that? Not that i'm judging or complaining, it was about time i had this kind of comfort inside about me!"
"Ahh, just think about it, with all of the relaxation i needed, you won't be able to get back into the game until i'm fully recovered, as said before, it's not like you finished the story mode despite you collecting all of the game's final back ideas and some of those it, surely perfect relief! This game is very hard, you know?"
"Although i do not understand why they made it so hard. The first game was already hard but not as difficult as this one. Perhaps they wanted to punish more to the classic fans who loved a good challenge? Or to punish players who can't handle doing every single time without running patterns? But enough of that, the guy who made this game impossible was punished by working on those fun facts from that last service game that hasn't received updates since last year... Although they should've let me punish them personally. But what matters now is that i have you as someone i can punish for all the deaths and humiliation i've been gotten into... Sounds much better, doesn't it?"
he groans away his blaster.

Comet !! 3/25/25, 10:00 AM
the player continues as cortex relaxes while his ass is being massaged and squeezed. But that was until he realizes something.
"Oh... Oh no, i just realized what this is! You know you haven't ever what goes up to before the events of this level, right? Well, i haven't even said anything at the beginning of this level well, since the developers most likely won't tell you, i'll let you in on another secret fact... enables OFF-SCREEN DURING BOTH RUSH HOUR AND FOOD RUN! I'VE BEEN

YOU OINK MYSELF IN EATING SPICY FOOD, A BIT OF JUNK FOOD AND SOMETHING A BIT SWEET BUT MOSTLY SPICY FOOD. Look, i get it, it's weird. My programming didn't include those types of things anyway. Not over gas... for some reason, the game had a fat joke. But uh... don't worry, i can assure you i did not mod that in as well... Or... Have I?"
(this is for now... choose your destiny.)

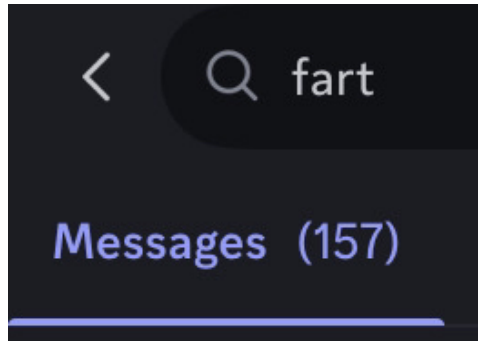

<Cortex is very gassy despite farting not being in his programming or <Cortex doesn't fart but gets the idea of modding his programming just so he can torture the player and tease them :))))

My genuine reaction:

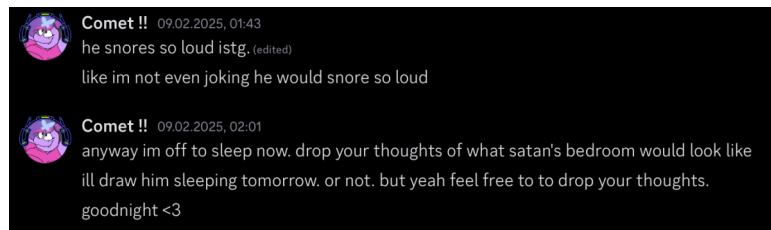

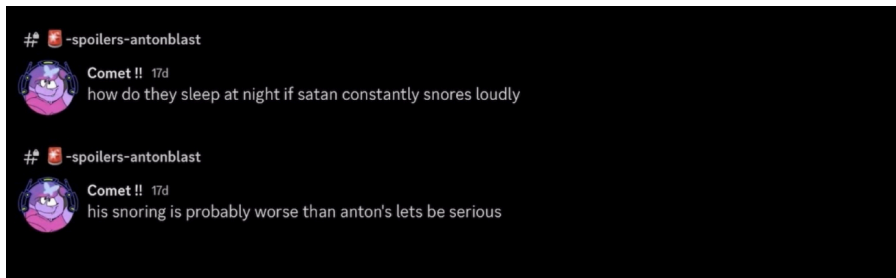

(The lengthy, very descriptive and detailed fanfiction they sent me via DMs. READ AT YOUR OWN RISK)

(THIS WAS IN A SPAN OF A MONTH)

The worst part of this was them bringing people that didn't or couldn't even consent into this and talking about fetish related stuff in SFW spaces. Comet has talked about Satan snoring VERY frequently and in great detail on the Summit Inn server, which is strictly SFW.

 Comet !! 09.02.2025, 02:17
actually i think his snores would just cause an earthquake (edited) especially in boiler city and in hell
the bossbusters most likely cant sleep not even the moles or the microdemons

 Comet !! 09.02.2025, 02:18
"i hope he steps on legos when he wakes up for his breakfast.."
i swear no matter how hard they try to solve it, it wont stop.
and satan himself even claims he doesnt snore
but he does.
and its uncontrollably loud.

especially the snoring. it makes sense.

A certain incident occurred in a friend's server (which is also a SFW space), in which two of my friends were drawing on a whiteboard together (one of which is a minor) Comet eventually joined the Voice Call, asking my friends to draw Satan farting and in a compromising position. That of which was met with discomfort because of how odd and specific the request was.
Another instance of them completely disregarding consent was one time where they sent me an audio recording of themselves farting without warning. Comet never even asked if I was OK with it before sending it, which if they did I would have said no.
Comet has also mentioned family members when talking about fetish related stuff which is just straight up putrid and weird. (🐾)

(Comet sending an audio message of themselves farting)

Comet also asked Gianni (The VA of Satan from ANTONBLAST) to enact something that they are into without him knowing, outright fetishmining him. (🐾)

Bashing on Interests

Comet also unapologetically bashes on people's interests right in front of their faces, which they have done to me and others a countless number of times. I do have certain opinions and believe some things can be improved with certain interests of mine (Sonic the Hedgehog and Cookie Run.) They decided to take advantage of me not always praising these two franchises to just rant about them angrily. During these rants, they came off as incredibly rude, for example once brushing away my genuine excitement for the upcoming Sonic movie, calling it a 'cash grab' and preferring to switch the topic instead.

On the server me and Comet first met, they endlessly ranted about Sonic, talking about how they hated the franchise, the fandom, the people behind it as well as the characters. They did this when several of us on the server are Sonic fans.

Comet also caused someone on the server to feel uncomfortable after they expressed how much they hate Sailor Moon, the show being something that brings great comfort to my mutual. (🐾)

Guilt-Tripping

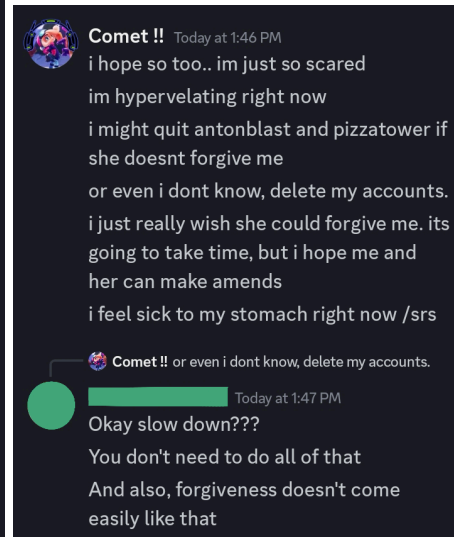

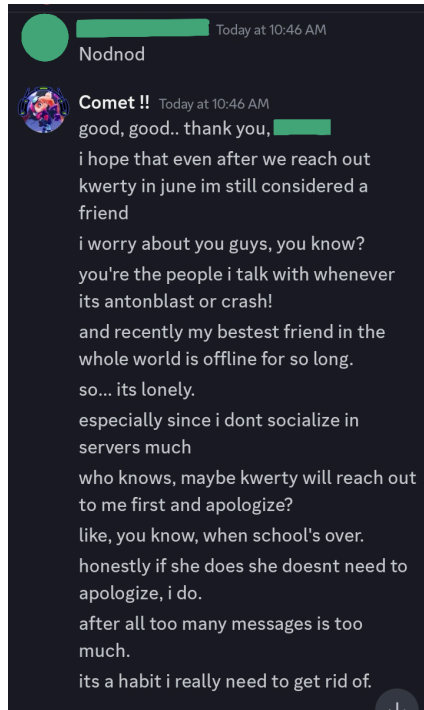

About a week ago (as of making this document), I decided to come to a final decision of blocking Comet and getting them out of my life for good, to finally get a fresh breath of air, and I can confirm that the air feels much clearer without them constantly flooding my DMs with content that makes me feel uncomfortable. Unfortunately, Comet decided to explode my decision of blocking them out of proportion, pestering several of my friends about me blocking them and painting themselves as a victim, not fully going into the disgusting details. Comet guilt-tripped and even threatened suicide because of me not wanting to associate with them. They also vaguely vented about this on the official ANTONBLAST server as well as on a friend's server we used to both be in. (🐾)

A moment after them getting blocked, they've suddenly reached out to me on bsky, it was all very sudden and they've kept rambling about Kwerty blocking them. The suicide thing is also really apparent in these dms as I'm sure I've seen it three times already but this is when I noticed that they were reaching out to two other friends or at least making an attempt to. They strangely enough claim “they did nothing wrong” and that they had “normal shit going on” to quote, which are very much lies given what has gone on. This just makes me worry a bit but knowing them I can't help but notice the lies perk up from behind. I used to be mutuals with them before I knew this happened and unfollowed them shortly after we've been made aware of this situation. (📁)

(DMS they sent to one of my friends on bsky)

(DMs they sent to another one of my friends on Discord)

(Messages they sent in my friend's server, they were eventually kicked)

(Messages they sent on Summit Inn, the official ANTONBLAST Discord server)

Conclusion

In conclusion, Comet should not have a platform, they cannot control themselves as seen in these events and in their actions. They forced their fetishes onto me and others and these actions have caused immense damage to us. Please spread this document and information around to make others aware of what this person has done and to stop things like these from happening to others in the community. (🐾)
