Who is Comet?

Comet is a user who is currently most active in the ANTONBLAST and Crash Bandicoot communities. They post both fan art and original art onto their accounts on several platforms including Bsky, Instagram, and Tumblr. This person really does not deserve the platform they have, considering everything they did to me and others, I will explain and show the various things Comet did in this document. ()

Initial Interactions and the Descent into Depravity

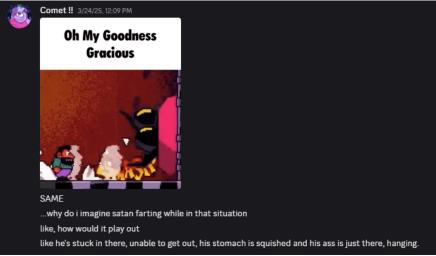

About a month ago or so (as of making this document), Comet and I became friends after we both met on a server based on one of our current favorite games, as we shared common interests which were ANTONBLAST and Crash Bandicoot. We eventually moved to DMs and began talking. The conversations that we had were tame and nice at first, we talked about our interests and shared various ideas and thoughts we had for our favorite characters and franchises.

Eventually, Comet began to drift towards questionable territory, with them talking about their favorite characters farting and or sleeping/snoring. I didn't question anything at first and made sure to keep an open mind, since I didn't want to seem rude or as a kinkshamer as I personally don't find that sort of content appealing. ()

Fetish Mining

As time passed, Comet talking about these certain fascinations happened almost every single day. They began to talk about the characters they liked farting and or sleeping/snoring in great detail and frequency, sent me drawings they made of their favorite characters in outright fetishistic scenarios, and wrote very long, extremely detailed fanfiction of the characters they like in certain situations relating to their fetishes.

Comet also frequently asked me to answer their questions of what a character would say or do in these kinds of situations. They just overall tried to force these fetishes of theirs onto me. () also i wonder how he is in bed in a sleep sense.

KwertyKat 2/23/25, 1:45 PM

HONKKKKKK

Comet !! 2/23/25, 1:45 PM

yeah all we know is that he snores but like what else.

does he fart in his sleep? does he have a stuffed animal? does he suck his thumb?

Comet !! 2/23/25, 2:37 PM

despite the accent and not being southern hed def say that do you think he broke wind while anton was in deviled gardens/hell manor or much earlier in the game after meeting him in person and before anton went to hell?

Comet !! 2/24/25, 3:45 PM

yeah he has a fat ass

idk why they went for annie instead when hes right there people even tried to beat him with just one hand just asking do you imagine some toot scenarios with him?

Comet !! 2/28/25, 5:45 PM

wait wait wait

what would cortex's farts be like i always felt like theyd be loud

just asking because i wanna hear what you think

(Some of the fetish drawings they sent me)

SATAN EEPING. SATAN EEPING

we need to talk abt that more

(in chemical crimson context both him and cortex would sleep deeply and snore loudly)

also imagining satan thinking someone else is a teddy bear in his sleep and he snuggles them the possible contenders:

anton - bro tried to sneak in to get something back but he got caught in the embrace instead, the snoring is worse. pizzahead - went back to the bedroom after getting a snack and satan got him and so they cuddle me - too small. a 5'3, hes using me as his teddy while im not one. but i rly appreciate it. and his snoring tickles the back of my neck (edited)

My genuine reaction:

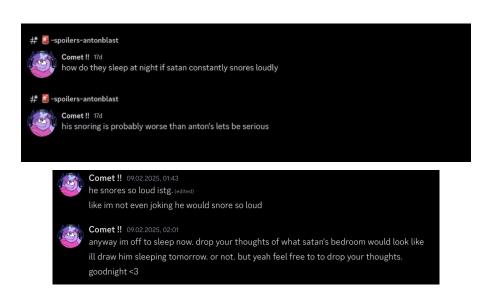

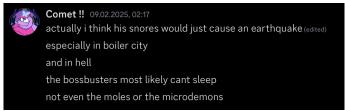

(The lengthy, very descriptive and detailed fanfiction they sent me via DMs, READ AT YOUR OWN RISK)

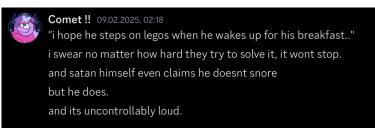

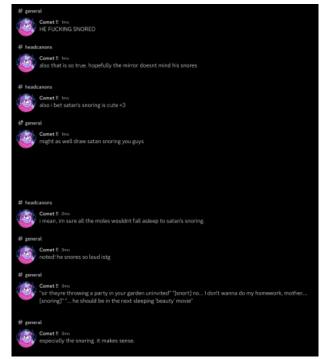

(THIS WAS IN A SPAN OF A MONTH)

The worst part of this was them bringing people that didn't or couldn't even consent into this and talking about fetish related stuff in SFW spaces. Comet has talked about Satan snoring VERY frequently and in great detail on the Summit Inn server, which is strictly SFW.

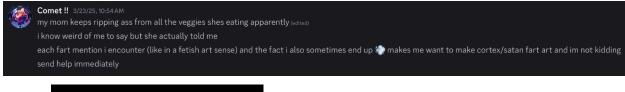

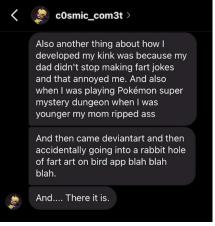

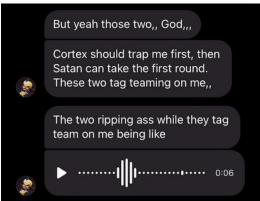

A certain incident occurred in a friend's server (which is also a SFW space), in which two of my friends were drawing on a whiteboard together (one of which is a minor)

Comet eventually joined the Voice Call, asking my friends to draw Satan farting and in a compromising position. That of which was met with discomfort because of how odd and specific the request was. Another instance of them completely disregarding consent was one time where they sent me an audio recording of themselves farting without warning. Comet never even asked if I was OK with it before sending it, which if they did I would have said no.

Comet has also mentioned family members when talking about fetish related stuff which is just straight up putrid and weird. ()

(Comet sending an audio message of themselves farting)

Comet also asked Gianni (The VA of Satan from ANTONBLAST) to enact something that they are into without him knowing, outright fetishmining him. (___)

Bashing on Interests

Comet also unapologetically bashes on people's interests right in front of their faces, which they have done to me and others a countless number of times. I do have certain opinions and believe some things can be improved with certain interests of mine (Sonic the Hedgehog and Cookie Run.) They decided to take advantage of me not always praising these two franchises to just rant about them angrily. During these rants, they came off as incredibly rude, for example once brushing away my genuine excitement for the upcoming Sonic movie, calling it a 'cash grab' and preferring to switch the topic instead.

On the server me and Comet first met, they endlessly ranted about Sonic, talking about how they hated the franchise, the fandom, the people behind it as well as the characters. They did this when several of us on the server are Sonic fans.

Comet also caused someone on the server to feel uncomfortable after they expressed how much they hate Sailor Moon, the show being something that brings great comfort to my mutual. (*)

Guilt-Tripping

About a week ago (as of making this document), I decided to come to a final decision of blocking Comet and getting them out of my life for good, to finally get a fresh breath of air, and I can confirm that the air feels much clearer without them constantly flooding my DMs with content that makes me feel uncomfortable. Unfortunately, Comet decided to explode my decision of blocking them out of proportion, pestering several of my friends about me blocking them and painting themselves as a victim, not fully going into the disgusting details. Comet guilt-tripped and even threatened suicide because of me not wanting to associate with them. They also vaguely vented about this on the official ANTONBLAST server as well as on a friend's server we used to both be in. (_____)

A moment after them getting blocked, they've suddenly reached out to me on bsky, it was all very sudden and they've kept rambling about Kwerty blocking them. The suicide thing is also really apparent in these dms as I'm sure I've seen it three times already but this is when I noticed that they were reaching out to two other friends or at least making an attempt to. They strangely enough claim "they did nothing wrong" and that they had "normal shit going on" to quote, which are very much lies given what has gone on. This just makes me worry a bit but knowing them I can't help but notice the lies perk up from behind. I used to be mutuals with them before I knew this happened and unfollowed them shortly after we've been made aware of this situation. (\blacksquare)

Conclusion

In conclusion, Comet should not have a platform, they cannot control themselves as seen in these events and in their actions. They forced their fetishes onto me and others and these actions have caused immense damage to us. Please spread this document and information around to make others aware of what this person has done and to stop things like these from happening to others in the community. (*)
