Story is highlighted in blue

Offer is highlighted in green

Subject Line: It's the first time I see this

After repeating the same mistake over and over again, expecting to get a different result.

Sometimes in life, we deeply know the solution to our problems.

we know their roots, at what exact moment they originated and we know the action plan necessary to overcome the situation

but as absurd as it sounds we keep tripping over the same stone

this happened to me over and over again

I kept using my money guided by my emotions spending the same amount or more than you earned saving in the bank hoping to receive interest as small as the sand of the sea thinking that one day that money would return in great fortune sadly (or happy) the day I didn't have a dollar in my bank account

I discovered that the culprit of my own poverty was myself

Until one day, due to the benevolence of fortune, I found the key to financial success.

It was the day I was a client of a private bank for the first time.

It's the first time I made my money pay off
