

Hey Becky,

I recently stumbled upon your video about “Carb Creep”. It is a great way to build an audience that you could refer to your 21-Day Low-Carb Challenge.

I thought of a few ways that could increase your target audience by diversifying your social media portfolio.

So I spent some of my time putting together a quick list containing the key points. If you're interested, let me know and I'll send it over.

Best Regards,
Gianluca
