Here is a Terms of Service for working with me.

UPDATED 2/17/25

When I open for commissions or YCHs you can contact me on twitter, telegram or directly to my email to inquire. I prefer information to be sent over email but willing to make exceptions.

My email is art@rileykit.com

Please try to have all relevant information included in the first email. Refs, ideas, and your paypal email where I can send an invoice. I am not responsible if I forget any details discussed further in the conversation. I however am willing to make small changes at the end if they were mentioned at all during our interaction.

For flat color fullbody commissions:

I send a WIP sketch and wait for your approval to continue. I'm willing to make changes at this stage. If you dont like the entire pose I can redraw it but I will likely use the first pose as a YCH and resell it.

After approval of the sketch I will continue until it is done. I do not send lineart WIPs. If you'd like an edit after the commission is done we can discuss.

For ychs:

I do not send WIPs for ychs! Because of this I am happy to make small edits after its complete if necessary.

Payment is via Paypal invoice. Even if you dont have a paypal account it allows you to pay by card.

I have the right to turn down any commission, any character, any person for any reason. Dont take it personally if I turn you down, it is likely because I am recognizing my limits.

Turnaround time is between 1 and 2 months. I will get in touch with you at the 1 month mark and am always happy to give updates if you need peace of mind before or after that.

I will offer full refunds after 90 days if you dont want to wait any longer, and only if nothing has been started. I will refund 50% if the sketch is already done.

Do's and dont's

I WILL draw:

Cub or adult characters

Diapered characters

ADULTS ONLY-

Hypnotized characters

Wet and/or messy diapers
