Keyboarding for the development of finger isolation, bilateral motor skills and visual tracking and scanning. You can increase the font size and the color of the page to make it fun. Utilize the alphabet in sequential order, utilize the sentence: The quick brown fox jumped over the lazy dogs to incorporate all the letters, or have your child type words from their reading program.