

Context Clues Part III (10/27/11)

Directions: Work on this chart collaboratively with your teammates ONLINE FIRST. Then fill it out ON PAPER and paste it on to page 53 of your Brain. This is due tomorrow, NO EXCUSES.

Say (Direct quote from the text)	Mean (What is the meaning of the underlined word in this context?)	Strategy (Which context clue strategy did you use to figure this out?)	Definition (What is the actual definition of the word from www.dictionary.com )
"GILES, to Danforth : It is my wife you be condemning now." (p. 79)
"DANFORTH: And you do you imagine to help her cause with such contemptuous riot?" (p. 79)
"DANFORTH, to Francis : Let you write your plea , and in due time I will--" (p. 80)
"MARY WARREN: It were pretense , sir." (p. 82)
"DANFORTH: We burn a hot fire here; it melts down all concealment ." (p. 83)
"DANFORTH: There lurks nowhere in your heart, nor hidden in your spirit, any desire to undermine this court?" (p. 83)

