

Yellow Dog College Consulting Consultant/Client Agreement

This agreement outlines the professional relationship between client and consultant regarding educational consulting services provided by Yellow Dog College Consulting.

Educational Consulting Services:

Consultant Agrees to provide:

- One Zoom meeting with client to answer questions and provide guidance on topics of client's choice for up to one hour.

Topics could potentially include:

- Guidance with course selections, keeping in mind client's strengths and considering a healthy balance with extracurricular activities and daily living activities (eating, sleeping, social time, etc.).
- Extracurricular and summer activity planning, focusing on client's interests.
- Guidance on how to research colleges.
- Guidance with standardized test planning.
- Essay brainstorming and feedback.

Educational Consultant will keep all personal, academic, medical and financial information concerning the client or client's family confidential.

Consultant will not:

- Guarantee of acceptance into any school or program.
- Contact universities or its employees on behalf of a client/family and/or impose undue pressure on schools for acceptance.
- Complete college research, write essays, or fill out applications on behalf of the client.
- Place undue pressure on the client to complete assignments, initiate contact with schools, or choose a particular major/school.
- Communicate with client's school, teacher, or tutors on behalf of the client/family.
- Guarantee of scholarship or financial aid awards.
- Work with any student who is currently enrolled in the Eanes Independent School District.

Client agrees to:

- Share all relevant educational records with consultant, including transcript, test scores, and 504 plan/IEP (if applicable).
- Request school records (transcript), test scores (through College Board or ACT), and academic and personal recommendations required for summer programs.

Payment:

Services will not begin until contract has been paid in full. Venmo: @Kristen-Williamson-8.
