

Santa Ana High School

Student & Parent Cell Phone Policy Contract

2025–2026 School Year

Purpose

In accordance with Assembly Bill 3216, Santa Ana High School is committed to ensuring a focused, safe, and healthy learning environment for all students. Cell phones, when misused, can interfere with instruction, contribute to mental health challenges, and increase incidents of cyberbullying and distraction. This policy aims to limit phone use in a way that supports student success and well-being.

Cell Phone Use Policy

Students may use cell phones:

- In class only when directed by a teacher for educational purposes only.
- During passing periods and lunch, with responsible behavior.
- Before and after school.

Students may not use cell phones:

- During class without explicit teacher permission.
- In restrooms, locker rooms, or private areas.
- For any form of bullying, harassment, or inappropriate content access.
