

I'm Maura Healey, I'm the Attorney General in Massachusetts and we're here in Charlestown, Massachusetts, at the Boys and Girls Club on a basketball court. I chose this location because I am a basketball player. Sports and basketball were a big part of my life. I've learned about leadership, discipline, hard work and teamwork. Through sports and you know I was lucky to be able play in college and then I played pro for a few years and even when I was running for office and as I leave the office I am constantly drawing upon the things that I have learned about through sports.
