

"Spoiled" Summer Page is in the living room of the house she shares with her fiancé. She is looking at videos and pictures on her phone when a hand touches her shoulder. A startled Summer drops her phone and looks behind her to see her older sister "Classy" Bianca Page standing there.

"Spoiled" Summer Page: BITCH! You scared the hell out of me!!! When did you start creeping around like your Richard Powers or those two inbred fools, Da Bong Twinz?

"Classy" Bianca Page: Don't even compare to those people!!! And when did you become so jumpy?

Summer stands up and takes a couple deep breaths.

"Spoiled" Summer Page: Well, when you come into my home unannounced and come up behind me...

"Classy" Bianca Page: I could've sworn I told you I was coming. Huh! Whatever!

Bianca shrugs her shoulders as Summer slaps Bianca's left arm before the two sisters hug each other.

"Spoiled" Summer Page: What are you doing here?

"Classy" Bianca Page: Can't I just come by to see my sister?

The sisters look at each other and both chuckle.

"Spoiled" Summer Page: Come...Have a seat.

The sisters walk around to the front side of the couch. Bianca notices Summer's phone on the floor, Bianca leans down and picks up Summer's phone.

"Classy" Bianca Page: What are you doing? Just going down memory lane?

"Spoiled" Summer Page: Um yeah...

"Classy" Bianca Page: Looking back at the good times with Mari?

"Spoiled" Summer Page: And remembering the bad too...

"Classy" Bianca Page: Why? I mean I have love for both of you but you two are a little too much alike to be able to coexist.

“Spoiled” Summer Page: I assure you, Binx, this is not by choice. With both of us wrestling for XWF we were bound to crosspaths once again.

“Classy” Bianca Page: Fair enough... But you damn well know going down memory lane doesn't do you a damn bit of good when stepping into the ring.

Summer takes a deep breath.

“Classy” Bianca Page: Doesn't it feel good to confess that me being right is wonderful?

“Spoiled” Summer Page: Don't push it...

“Classy” Bianca Page: I would never!

“Spoiled” Summer Page: You've been spending way too much time with Shark.

“Classy” Bianca Page: You would too if you saw the size of his...

Summer puts her index fingers over her ears.

“Spoiled” Summer Page: Lalalala No, I don't need to hear about that!

6 Hours Later

“Spoiled” Summer Page is doing early morning cardio on her treadmill in her home gym. Summer has her AirPods in her ears listening to music and as she is sprinting on the treadmill she is looking out of the closest window at the pre sunrise darkness.

“Spoiled” Summer Page: (Thinking to herself) While I know Mari like the back of my hand despite what she likes to portray to the world. Which is fine because that is how Mari is because of all the good things I can say about Mari... Yes, I can say plenty of good things about Marisol because like I said I know her better than most but my point is I know Marisol very well. Because I was an OG #VilaroFit member along with my sisters. We traveled the world together and I got to see her in every aspect of life. As well as I know Mari I don't know XXXVI and I'm sure that's the way he likes it...

Summer lowers the speed on the treadmill as she is breathing heavily as she begins walking on the treadmill.

“Spoiled” Summer Page: (Thinking to herself) And how could he not like it? It definitely gives you a leg up against your opposition but how much do you really know about Marisol and or I? If I am correct and I like to think that I am. You just have a perception of us and more specifically you have this perception of me but I like to think that I've grown over the last few years. My falling out with Mari had a huge part in my evolution over that time. So as much as both you, XXXVI and Mari like to think they know me in fact only know a portion of what I am now all about. Which gives me an edge going into this matchup but as much as I have grown over this time since my split with Mari I know there is a part of who I used to be still inside me. I know she will always be a part of me. I wouldn't be who I am today if not for who I used to be and I love where I am today.

Summer hits the off button on the treadmill and she breathes heavily as she stops walking. Summer stands there on the treadmill with a wicked smile on her face.

“Spoiled” Summer Page:I have come so close since my return to XWF to getting over the hump to get everything I could ever want from this company.

Summer walks off the treadmill and grabs a hand towel then wipes the sweat off her forehead.

“Spoiled” Summer Page:Now don't get me wrong, just because I haven't come out here and totally trashed Mari doesn't mean my eyes aren't wide open to exactly who she is. I know better than most who she is and I'm prepared for her to try to cheat her way to victory. It's just in Mari's nature to do so and despite all of her good qualities she can't fight all the bad that comes with the good. And that everybody is the #VilaroFit way. So I'll definitely be ready for both sides of Mari so I can leave College Park with the victory.

Summer winks at the camera as she turns away and walks out of her emasculate home gym.
