

Hey (Name),

I've seen a couple of your Youtube videos, and I absolutely understand the immense amount of effort and dedication that goes into making great quality content.

That's why I'd like to make a free short-form video edit for you with one of your videos. I believe this could really enhance your content and save you some valuable time in the process.

Would you like me to send you the video? You can just reply with "send it" and I'll share the video with you.

All The Best,
Piero
