Hi SubscriberFirstname,

This is from

Do you know your magic number?

It's the amount you need to cover, before everything else is gravy, every month.

Look, 2- 3 months from now, you could have your LiveGood income paying for all your expenses.

Everything you make above and beyond that, goes towards building your wealth and legacy.

Here's what you want to think about covering:

- * Mortgage/Rent
- * Groceries
- * Health
- * Insurance
- * Car payment/Insurance
- * Credit Card
- * Debt (min payments)
- * School for kids?
- * Utilities
- * Internet/TV/Phone/Cell

Go ahead, add these up, and write down what this number is.

It is vitally important to have a very concrete reason to build residual income or you won't do it.

Are you ready?

60 days from now, your life can be completely different...

Imagine how you'd feel to be able to spend more time with your kids and less time at work.
