Provide a general synopsis of what the course/activity covered/contained.

The A/E industry is becoming more and more specialized. As vacancies rise due to various factors, knowledge retention in the transportation sector is declining. This presents a significant challenge for today's design teams when developing complete projects across the full project life cycle: pre-design, design, procurement, construction, and post-construction. The Construction Management Association of America (CMAA) Baltimore Chapter presents this engaging session (debate?) on specific challenges, recommendations from a field perspective, and how Construction Managers holding CMAA's Certified Construction Manager (CCM) credential are the missing link to cohesive project management and development.

Attach any documentation of participation: i.e. Certificate of Attendance/Completion, transcripts, handouts, tests, programs, outline, reports and other demonstrative evidence of attendance.
