2024-2025 Advanced Placement Testing Information

Please read this entire AP testing information packet for important details.

Before the Day of Your AP Test:

- Read all the information below. Visit The College Board website to review the AP Exam Policies and Guidelines.
- Look at your test schedule in AP Classroom; reference page 3 of this document to know where and when to report for your test.
- IMPORTANT: Go to www.apscore.org and sign up for a free account in order to get your scores online in July. If you think you already have an account, go to the website to try to sign in to verify. Your AP teacher can assist you. Write down your username, password, and AP number so that you don't forget them!
- Please visit <https://apstudents.collegeboard.org/course-index-page> and click on the link for your course(s) for the specific calculator policy, test information and resources.
- Verify your log-in information including username and password for Bluebook - ask your AP teacher for help before your exam if needed.

On the Day of Your AP Test:

- Arrive on time.
 - If you are taking an AM exam, arrive by 6:50 AM to get in line for exam registration. Registration begins promptly at 7:00 in the atrium of the main gym.
 - If you are taking a PM exam, arrive by 10:50 AM to get in line for exam registration. Registration begins promptly at 11:00 in the atrium of the main gym.
 - If you have an AM exam and a PM exam on the same day, you will register for your PM test once your AM test is finished.
- DO NOT BE LATE. Set multiple alarms. Once we have begun testing, you will not enter the testing room.
- In general, you are not required to attend your classes before/after the testing period on a day you are scheduled to take an AP exam. However, if you have a Final Exam scheduled that same day, it is advised you try to make it work to do both, although your AP exam takes priority. If you have any questions or concerns, visit the administrative offices in the Attendance Office.
- Failure to show for a scheduled exam will result in a $40 fee for a return test fee to The College Board.
- If you take a test in the AM and do not have a ride home you will be required to go to the remainder of your classes.
- PM test takers will need a ride home. You will not be finished with the exam at bus dismissal, plan accordingly.
- All exams are timed. Students will not be dismissed until the exam has officially ended. If you play a sport or have a job, it is your responsibility to inform your coach or employer of this AP exam obligation.
- See the information below about the items you may and may not bring into the exam room. Please read carefully.

AP Exam Reminders:

- Check-in registration will begin promptly at the time indicated (7:00 for AM exams and 11:00 for PM exams). All test instructions will begin by 8:00 for AM exams and by 12:00 for PM exams. No one will be admitted to the testing area once the test begins.
- No one will be allowed to enter the exam room late. Please arrange transportation accordingly.
- The school cafeteria will be open from 10:40 until 12:15 for students who need lunch on exam day, either before or after an exam. Students taking a PM exam may go to the line designated for "Faculty and Staff" next to the theater to expedite and skip the line in order to eat lunch on exam testing days. Students taking two exams on the same day are advised to bring something from home to eat between exams.
- There will be a short break during most exams (typically 10 minutes).

After the Day of Your AP Test:

- Check www.apscore.org after exams for the exact date your scores will be available online. Also look for a reminder in July about online score availability at the email address you put on your AP answer sheet.
- Once scores are available, log onto apscore.org to get your scores. To access your scores, you will need your College Board account username and password and your AP number.

Attendance & Transportation:

Morning exams:

- Students will be marked as testing for the entire day (ACT). If a student wishes to leave after the AM exam period parents should plan to pick students up in the side parking lot of the school. Please see the times listed below and plan accordingly.

Afternoon exams:

- All students must arrange transportation to Seckinger unless you are taking the bus and attending your morning classes. All afternoon exams will end after bus dismissal requiring students to provide their own transportation home at the end of exams. Please see the times listed below and plan accordingly.
