The complete transcript for season 1 to 3

- <http://www.equestriadaily.com/2013/03/seasons-1-3-transcribed.html>
- Have you ever wonder how does a My Little Pony Friendship is Magic script looks like? Well if the answer is "yes" we have the closes thing to an official script that you can find.

Thanks to the diligent work of Alan Back, he has transcribed all of season 1, 2 and 3. What makes this transcript different from MLPwiki is, he has included all the camera motion, scene description and fades.

If you have ever wanted to create your own script this is a good reference to learn from.

More Ponies From Funko!

- <http://www.equestriadaily.com/2013/03/funko-pop-figures-on-toywiz.html>
- Last week we mention that Funko were going to release another 2 sets of vinyl pony figures in June. At around the same time Funko will also release a new set of figures under their POP line.

What is the difference between the vinyl ponies and POP Ponies? Well the Vinyl ponies are show accurate and are pose standing at 6" tall, while the POP ponies are more cuter and are pose sitting down at approximately 4" tall. The Price for a Vinyl pony can start at $12.99 to $16.50 while the POP ponies start at $9.99 and higher.

A Comparison Of The McD, Burger King And Hasbro Pony Toys

- <http://www.equestriadaily.com/2013/03/burger-king-pony-comparison.html>
- As some of you might know, Burger King Germany gave a pony toy with every kids meal in their recent promotion. Someone has lineup all 3 toys and did a visual comparison of all 3 toys.

At first glances, the notable differences are obvious. The McDonald pony has a hard mane while it has a brushable tail, the Burger King pony has a hard mane and tail and the Hasbro pony has brushable mane and tail.
