Operation Parent: Parent Handbook

Hello TVES Families,
The Deerfield Valley Community Partnership sent home a helpful parenting guide from "Operation Parent" with every student (K-5). This resource provides information, guidance, and resources to help navigate the many challenges kids and parents face today.

Send us some feedback to be entered into our raffle for a free Gen. 7 I-Pad!

Wildcat Writers:

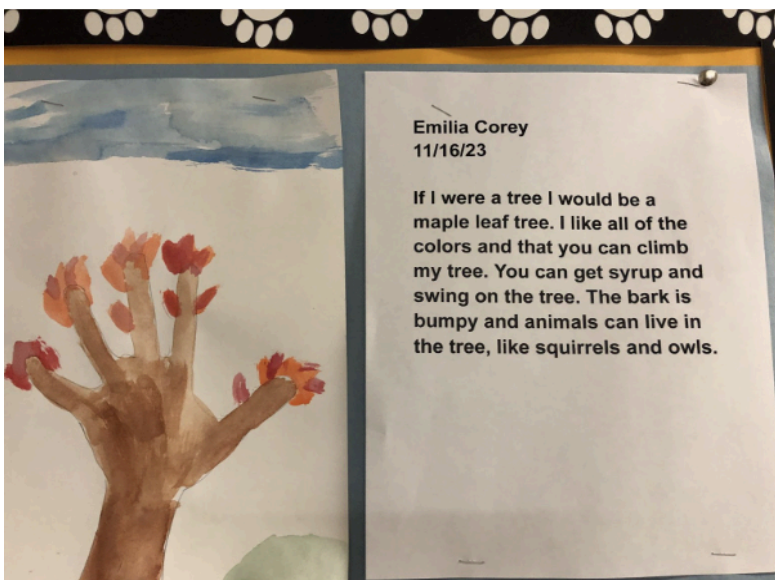

Emilia Corey & George Morin - First Grade

George likes to write about a lot of | stuff like his dog that passed away. He also writes informational pieces about things like trucks. He enjoys making books. Sometimes he will do a second draft of a piece of writing to make it better. A next step in his writing is to share some of his work with his mom and hopefully his cousins.

Emilia likes to write informational pieces. She has written many stories about animals. She has also made books about how the world works.

She is going to make a book about how fast the world spins. She likes to make books at school and at home. Her next step as a writer is to make a book about Christmas.

Photos of Writing

Emilia and George both chose to share writing they did with Mrs. Jutras.
