Outreach 1:

My bad Aarti 😅

Hey,

Yes, this is another outreach DM. But it's only a 20-second read. I don't want to be that annoying, spammy dude, so reply "Stop" if you want me to leave you.

Anyway, your website aspires to be a part of the multi-million $ funnel. There's a strategy used by people like Alex Hormozi and Sabri Suby, but I'm not sure if this would work for your business.

Would you be against hearing about it?

Outreach 2:

What's up Aqsa?

I've got a proposal for you. 25 seconds, let's go:

Thousands of people in the world can benefit from your knowledge.

But you don't leverage all the possibilities. And look. I'll be honest with you. Your marketing has some space to be improved.

We can both agree that you've got the best quality of engaging followers and an incredible knowledge about social media.

Why on earth wouldn't you go beyond your current marketing & copywriting standards?

Let's get you a show of my capabilities.

Would you be against getting a gameplan to as many clients and sales as you can possibly handle?

Outreach 3:

What's up Abhi?

I've got a proposal for you. 30 seconds, let's go:

I think thousands of people in the world can benefit from your knowledge.

But you don't leverage all the possibilities. And look. I'll be honest with you. Your marketing is not in its prime.

But we can both agree that you've got the best quality of engaging followers and an incredible knowledge about social media.

Why on earth wouldn't you go beyond social media with your marketing?

Let's get you a show of my capabilities.

Would you be against getting a gameplan to as many clients and sales as you can possibly handle?
