

Speak to me, Angel Alex.

Why do people obsess over snails and not angels?

Are they not guided by their souls?

They consume snails with their food and clean their shells afterwards.

According to a Troy priest, people are enthralled not by the shell of a snail, but by the flavour of a snail. Not gonna doubt that.

Alex began to laugh, "What are you taking about, Cia? The god of angels dwells within the shells of snails!"
