

Elsie (Antos) Smallwood

Elsie (Antos) Smallwood, 96, of Hartford and formerly of Glastonbury, passed away Monday, (April 27, 2009) at Avery Heights in Hartford. Elsie was born in Glastonbury on November 25, 1912, a daughter of the late Anton and Mary (Champlik) Antos. Elsie raised her family in Newington and moved back to Glastonbury in 1973, where she resided until moving to Avery Heights in 2007. Elsie retired from Connecticut Bank and Trust Company after many years of dedicated service. Elsie also enjoyed ten-pin bowling at the AMF Silver Lane Bowling Center in East Hartford. Elsie is survived by two special grandchildren, Eric Whyte of East Hartford, Jeffrey Whyte in Florida; her son-in-law, Robert Whyte of East Hartford; and a brother, Louis Antos of West Hartford. Along with her parents, Elsie was predeceased by her daughter, Shirley Whyte of East Hartford. Elsie's family would like to extend their sincere gratitude and appreciation to Elsie's friend, Joanne Blum of Colchester for her many years of caring, love, and support given to Elsie and her family. Funeral services will be Monday, May 4, at 1 p.m. at the D'Esopo-East Hartford Memorial Chapel, 30 Carter Street, East Hartford with Rev. Al Turner officiating.

Burial will be at Green Cemetery in Glastonbury.
