

US I Remote Learning 18

Directions:

This week, we will continue and finish our study of Reconstruction. This lesson will give a broad overview of how Reconstruction failed to protect the rights of black people.

Watch this video, and answer the following questions:

1. How did Southern white men define freedom for black people?
2. What were the three Reconstruction amendments, and what did they do?
3. After the Civil War, how did the economic freedom of black people change?
4. What were “sharecroppers?”
5. After the Civil War, how did the physical freedom of black people change?
6. What were the “Black Codes?”
7. How did the 14th Amendment change the concept of citizenship?
8. Was the 14th Amendment really enforced?
9. How did the 15th Amendment change the concept of voting?
10. Was the 15th Amendment really enforced?
11. How does the author summarize the change in freedom for black people as the result of Reconstruction?