

“Star Spangled Banner” Rubric (5 is the highest rating perfect score is 35)

Rating	1	2	3	4	5
Memorized	Cannot sing song memorized, or left out parts.	Sang the song and missed four words.	Sang the song and missed two or three words.	Sang the song and only missed one word.	Sang the song without messing up any words.
Pitch (in tune.)	Sang off key.	Sang with below average pitch...too high or low or miss notes.	Sang with average pitch.	Almost sang the song with perfect pitch.	Sang the song with perfect pitch.
Quality (nasal or breathy too loud or soft.)	Sang the song too nasal, breathy, loud, soft, or just not pleasantly.	Sang the song with a below average quality.	Sang the song with an average quality.	Sang the song with a good quality.	Sang the song with an excellent quality.
Posture Breath	Sang with incorrect breathing and posture.	Sang with below average posture and breath support.	Sang with average posture and breath support.	Sang with good posture and breath support.	Sang with perfect posture and breath support.
Stage Presence Microphone	Totally nervous and had stage fright, and couldn't finish. Failing to use the mic properly	Sang song with no emotion and a lot of stage fright. Using mic Really incorrectly	Sang song with little emotion and little stage fright. Not using the mic correctly	Sang song with good emotion and a little stage fright Too close/far away from mic.	Sells the song with passion and no stage fright. Uses the mic correctly
Tempo (too fast or slow or on time.)	Sang with poor tempo.	Sang a little too fast or slow or inconsistently.	Sang with average tempo.	Sang with above average tempo.	Sang with perfect tempo.
Respect (right hand on heart, look at flag, stand straight.)	Didn't respect the flag.	Didn't stand straight or used the wrong hand or didn't look at flag.	Forgot two of the ways to sing to the flag.	Forgot one of the respectful ways to sing to the flag.	Sang with right hand on heart, stood straight, and looked at the flag.

Created by Mrs. Hutchinson and Mrs. Knox's 4th grade class in 2014 and edited by Miss Hall's class in 2017