

Scenarios List
Scenario 1:            You come from a low-income family and struggle to afford school supplies. Your classmates often tease you for using old or worn-out materials.
Scenario 2:            You have recently moved to a new town and school. You find it challenging to make friends and feel lonely during lunch breaks.
Scenario 3:            Your parents are going through a divorce, and you constantly feel torn between them. You find it difficult to concentrate in class and worry about their well-being.
Scenario 4:            You have a younger sibling with a disability who requires constant care and attention. Sometimes you feel overwhelmed and overlooked by your parents.
Scenario 5:            You are an immigrant student who struggles with language barriers and cultural differences. You often feel isolated and misunderstood by your peers.
Scenario 6:            You have a chronic illness that requires frequent hospital visits and treatments. It's challenging to keep up with schoolwork and maintain a sense of normalcy.
Scenario 7:            Your family recently lost their home due to financial difficulties, and you're living in a shelter. You feel embarrassed and ashamed to share your living situation with classmates.
Scenario 8:            You are a member of the LGBTQ+ community and face discrimination and bullying at school because of your sexual orientation or gender identity.
Scenario 9:            You have a close friend who is struggling with mental health issues and contemplating self-harm. You feel helpless and unsure of how to support them.

Scenario 10:

You have a learning disability and require extra support in the classroom. Sometimes you feel frustrated and inadequate compared to your classmates.

Scenario 11:

You are a student athlete who faces pressure from your coach, parents, and peers to perform well in sports. Balancing academics and sports takes a toll on your mental and physical health.

Scenario 12:

You have a parent who is deployed in the military, and you worry about their safety while they're away. It's challenging to focus on school with constant anxiety.

Scenario 13:

You are a caregiver for a family member with a chronic illness or disability. Balancing caregiving responsibilities with school and personal life is overwhelming.

Scenario 14:

You are the child of immigrants who are undocumented. You fear the possibility of your family being separated or deported, causing constant stress and uncertainty.

Scenario 15:

You struggle with body image issues and low self-esteem due to societal pressures and media influence. You often compare yourself to others and feel inadequate.