McCulloch v. Maryland (1819)

McCulloch v. Maryland was a landmark Supreme Court case that is one of the 15 required cases that may show up on the AP exam.

Part 1: The Issue
Using the oral arguments, summarize the issues that led to the controversy using 2-3 Somebody Wanted But So sentences.

Somebody	Wanted	But	So

Part 2: The Court's Decision
In the conclusion, summarize the decision of the Court

The Supreme Court voted _____ to _____ in favor of…

Part 3: The Legal Reasoning for the Decision
The majority of justices reached this decision BECAUSE (the legal reasoning)…

The majority of justices reached this decision SO (the significance)….