

Warchasm Privacy Policy

Dual Perception Games built the VR title Warchasm as a commercial game. This service is provided by Dual Perception Games and is intended for use as is. This page is used to inform visitors regarding our policies with the collection, use and disclosure of public information.

Information We Collect

We may occasionally collect information about your interactions with our game, this may include gameplay data, device information and error reports.

Personal Information

In order to provide certain services within Warchasm we collect the following types of personal data via Meta platform integrations:

- User ID.
- User Profile.
- Friends List.

How is this information used

- Enabling social features, in this case achievements and leaderboards.
- Diagnosing and fixing technical issues.
- Complying with legal and regulatory requirements.

Data Sharing

Dual Perception Games does not employ the services of any third party service providers. We do not share your game-related personal information with third parties except:

- When required by law.
- When necessary to enable platform services.

Data Security

While we do take reasonable measures to protect the data we use and store, no data transmission or storage system can be guaranteed to be 100% secure and as such, we ourselves cannot ensure absolute security.

Platforms

If you have purchased this game through a third party such as Steam, Viveport or Meta and or use any of those services to play this game you should make yourself aware of the privacy policy of each relevant service.

Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update our Privacy Policy from time to time. These changes will always be available here and are effective immediately after they are posted on this page.

User Data Deletion

If you wish to delete your collected personal data, you can contact us at enquiries@dualperceptiongames.com with your request. We will process deletion requests in accordance with applicable legal and platform requirements.
