

Dear Michiganders,

We hope your semesters are going well! The MIRSA e-board has a few updates for you:

1. Huge, huge, huge thank you to all of those who planned, donated, and purchased things from the state workshop silent auction. We raised $2,200, all of which goes towards student and professional scholarships.

2. Speaking of scholarships, the application is now open. Applications are due Friday, November 30. You can find it HERE.

3. We are super excited to announce that Saginaw Valley State University will be hosting the 2019 State Workshop. Be on the lookout for final dates.

4. If you were able to attend the 2018 State Workshop presented by Life Fitness and Fitness Things but have not yet had the opportunity to fill out the feedback form, please do so HERE.

5. If you were unable to attend the workshop, we are in the process of gathering some feedback regarding hosting a regional professional conference, our award process, and committee structures. Please fill out that feedback form HERE.

6. Region III Lead On registration is open now. Please keep in mind that there is a cap of 350 attendees this year so make sure you get your registration in quick! Registration information can be found HERE.

7. We are in the process of a new website design so be on the lookout for a great new look coming soon!

Enjoy your upcoming holiday breaks!
