How We Protect the Information

At Developer Hall Software, we take commercially reasonable measures to protect your privacy and to shield the information from loss, misuse, unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration, or destruction. While we take serious precautions, no security measures are impenetrable and we cannot guarantee the safety or security of your Personal Information. It is for this reason we recommend you to use serious caution when browsing the internet. This particularly applies to sending or receiving emails so we suggest use caution when deciding what information to send via email.

Important Notice for Residents of European Economic Area

Both our website and the data servers are run in the United States so any Information is transferred to the US. For visitors and users that are located outside the United States, this means that you accept this transfer and our usage of the Information and data received for the purposes and to the extent stated in this Privacy Policy.

Your rights as the personal information data subject include reviewing, correcting, accessing, updating, and deleting information we hold about you. The rights also include requesting the transfer of the copy, restricting the processing of this information by means that include automated decision-making and profiling.

We follow the rules set forth by GDPR and encourage you to read <https://gdpr-info.eu>, especially the Chapter 3 and Chapter 5, to learn about your rights and data transfer regulations.

Children and Privacy

The Daypiece App is specifically created for and aimed at an adult audience. We comply with the Children’s Online Privacy Protection Act and do not request, hold, or knowingly collect any Personal Information from or about children under 13 years. We encourage parents and legal guardians to track how their children use the internet and instruct to never provide any Personal Information without their consent. For parents or legal guardians of children under 13, if you believe that your child has provided any Personal Information to us, please contact us, and we will remove such information from our databases.

California Residents

We do not currently share or plan to share or in any other way disclose any information you provide to third parties for their marketing purposes. If we were to change this practice, we would notify you 30 days prior to any of such events take place so that you may choose to opt out.

Changes to This Privacy Policy

This Privacy & Cookies Policy is effective as of the date in the “Last updated” legend at the top of the document. We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. You accept such changes by accessing the Website and/or using other services, or means of communication. We encourage you to look at this Privacy Policy regularly.
