

The Office of Senator Jaccobei
Senator of the State of Greater Appalachia
569 10th St NW, Washington, DC

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
January 7th, 2021

Statement on Senator Jaccobei's Election to Deputy Chair of the Democratic Party

I am incredibly thankful for my fellow Democrats putting their faith and trust in me to assist and lead the Democratic Party into the future as their Deputy Chair. This position is one that I do not take lightly and I will work tirelessly to perform at the highest standards.

We are at a very tense point in American history. Not long ago, we watched in horror as a violent insurrection happened in real time, only to be followed by one of the most radical Presidents this country has ever seen take office. A healthy Democracy always needs a robust and healthy opposition party, and we will give that going forward.

This country is in dire need of moral leadership, along with real, progressive change. The Democratic Party has always been the Party able to provide this, and will continue to do so going forward. Unlike the Republicans, Democrats will be looking forward into the future instead of looking backwards towards the past. I am excited to get to work and begin the process of creating a better America for all.

Senator Jaccobei

###