

HARRY POTTER PATH GAME – FIRST FLYING CLASS

(EPISODE 5)

So you managed to survive your four adventures? Now here is another one...

1. Which house are you in? You can randomly choose here or be sorted (If you want to be sorted, please check out Episode 2).

If you are in Gryffindor, go to statement 2.

If you are in Slytherin, go to statement 2.

If you are in Ravenclaw, go to statement 2.

If you are in Hufflepuff, go to statement 2.

2. We are having classes with all first-years today. Madam Hooch said: "Hello pupils, today we are having broom-flying lessons. Please take a broom and try to mount it," How would you mount it?

If you want to mount it by jumping over, go to statement 3.

If you want to mount it by going sideways, go to statement 4.

3. Apparently, it does not work. The broom just did not think what you are thinking and you just hit the ground – head in front. You have a severe injury and was sent into the hospital wing. If you want to try again, go to statement 1.

4. Nice! You got onto the broom and you managed to mount it. Suddenly, Madam Hooch got an emergency to fix and told you all not to ride on it and fly. After she left, Draco Malfoy snatched Neville's crystal ball and sneered. What would you do?

If you tell Malfoy not to do so, go to statement 5.

If you snatch the ball away from Malfoy, go to statement 6.

If you ignore and let the others do the work, go to statement 7.

5. You told Malfoy to shut up and give the ball back to Neville but he refused. He told you to come and snatch it. Then, he flew away on his broom. What would you do? Chase him or report him to the teacher later?

If you chase him, go to statement 8.

If you report him to the teacher later, go to statement 9.

6. You quickly snatched the ball from Draco. Then, what would you do? Would you give it back to Neville, or give him the ball later?

If you give it back to Neville now, go to statement 10.

If you give it back later, go to statement 11.

7. You ignored the work and let Harry Potter do the work. Then, accidentally, Professor McGonagall let him become the most youngest Quidditch player ever in Hogwarts. You regretted your actions. Soon, you be as moody as before and had depression. If you want to try again, go to statement 1. (Too dramatic lol)

8. You mount on the broom and chase him! He threw the ball away, sneering. "Let us see how will this poor guy get the ball." What would you do to get the ball?

If you dash forward, go to statement 12.

If you move up to catch the ball, go to statement 13.

9. Before you even report it to Madam Hooch, Draco Malfoy broke the ball. Whoops... If you want to try again, go to statement 1. If you want to try again, go to statement 1.

10. When you give back Neville his ball, Draco just snatched it back again. You snatched the ball back again and give back Neville his ball, but Draco again snatched back the ball. You snatched the ball back again and give back Neville his ball, but Draco again snatched back the ball. You snatched the ball back again and give back Neville his ball, but Draco again snatched back the ball. 500+ more words...

(If you want to try again, go to statement 1.)

11. You tell Neville that you would give the ball back later and he agreed. After the class, you give back to him as promised. As a reward, Professor Dumbledore punished Draco and give you 10 points for your house. (I know the “punishing Draco” part is not real, but just stick to it) If you want to try again, go to statement 1.

12. Little did you know you dashed too quickly and hit Professor McGonagall’s office. You were taken 10 points away from your house and 1-week detention. Sad life to you... If you want to try again, go to statement 1.

(You also need treatment from Madam Pomfrey. The good news is: Draco was having 2-weeks detention and 20 points-loss)

13. You managed to get the ball! After you get the ball, the crowd cheered and what would you do?

If you give it back to Neville now, go to statement 14.

If you give it back later, go to statement 15.

If you cheer with the crowd, go to statement 16.

14. When you give back Neville his ball, Neville thanked for your help. Then, Draco wanted to grab the ball away. What would you do?

If you push him away, go to statement 17.

If you punch him in the face, go to statement 18.

If you push Neville away, go to statement 19.

15. You tell Neville that you would give the ball back later and he agreed. After the class, you give back to him as promised. As a reward, Professor Dumbledore punished Draco and give you 10 points for your house. (I know the “punishing Draco” part is not real, but just stick to it) Go to statement 20.

16. You cheered with the crowd and forgot about the ball. Suddenly, it fell and you stepped on it and it broke. Neville cried and your house was taken away 5 points. Sad for you... If you want to try again, go to statement 1.

17. You pushed him away and tell Neville to run. The ball was saved! You won! Luckily you were not thrown into Azkaban. If you want to try again, go to statement 1. Proceed to statement 20.

18. "PUNCH!" the punch hit Draco on his face and he said, "My father will know about this!" The next day, you were thrown into Azkaban. If you want to try again, go to statement 1.

19. Neville has been pushed away and Draco did not get the ball... But he still sneered. The ball broke because it was squashed by Neville himself. If you want to try again, go to statement 1.

20. You was given a chance to become a Quidditch player! For the first time! See you in the next episode!
